

The Last Song: You and your group are to Sing and Perform this last song for us – how you do it is up to you – but above all BE CREATIVE and THOUGHTFUL. PICK A TUNE to SING it to. START with what is the THESIS of the play – the main point you got out of it. Now you and your group DRAMITALLY, LOUDLY, with everyone active and reading (at one time or another or together) – ACT it OUT – DANCE it OUT – SING it OUT. You could show us that thesis – you could reenact a scene from the play (pantomime) that fits your verse, etc.... – Show us what the play meant to you (personally) and your group!

1

When that I was and a little tiny boy,
With hey, ho, the wind and the rain,
A foolish thing was but a toy,
For the rain it raineth every day.

But when I came to man's estate,
With hey, ho, the wind and the rain,
'Gainst knaves and thieves men shut their gate,
For the rain it raineth every day

3

But when I came, alas! to wive,
With hey, ho, the wind and the rain,
By swaggering could I never thrive,
For the rain it raineth every day.

4

But when I came unto my beds,
With hey, ho, the wind and the rain,
With toss-pots still had drunken heads,
For the rain it raineth every day.

5

A great while ago the world begun,
With hey, ho, the wind and the rain,
But that's all one, our play is done,
And we'll strive to please you every day.
