

This was made for ppl that just want to choose a gift based off my general interests since the other stuff in the list aren't the only things I want honestly

Bold things are more important to me

Shirts/Jackets:

Any shirt with a cool or stupid design, I will wear if I can

Size is between M/L but XL is ok for comfort

Pants:

The only pants I wear are comfortable (open leg sweatpants, hakama pants, etc) or jeans

I'm always looking for rave pants (phat pants) to add to my wardrobe

Also, same with shirts, if there's a cool design on them I'll probably go out of my way to wear them

Size is 36W x 28L (If length is more than that, that's fine)

Shoes:

I wear sneakers, sandals, or work shoes

As long as they're comfortable, I'll wear it

Size is 42cm
