Repair Procedures & Components

At Markham Heating & Air Conditioning we understand that your home comfort depends on more than just one system—it's about the seamless performance of your heat pump, air conditioning unit, tankless water heater, and more. Our goal is to keep your home running efficiently, safely, and reliably while helping you save energy and avoid unexpected breakdowns.

Efficient Heating & Cooling

Your heat pump and air conditioning unit are essential for maintaining the perfect indoor temperature year-round. Our technicians inspect and service all components, including:

- Condenser coils – Cleaned and maintained to improve system efficiency.
- Fan motor – Checked for smooth operation to prevent unexpected failures.
- Refrigerant levels & Refrigerant leaks – Ensuring your system is properly charged and leak-free.
- Ductless systems & Evaporator drain trap – Carefully maintained for optimal airflow and moisture management.
- Special fittings & Applied filters – Replaced as needed to keep your system performing safely and efficiently.

We also provide smart thermostat installation to give you better control over your home's comfort and energy usage.

Hot Water & Boiler Solutions

From a tankless water heater to a traditional hot water tank or modulating boiler, we make sure your hot water supply is consistent and energy-efficient. Our services include:

- Checking the pressure switch and other safety components.
- Maintaining special fittings and ensuring proper flow through your hot water supply lines.
- Offering parts coverage for peace of mind.
