

If you would like to share feedback, use the link to our science lab google doc page and I will respond as soon as possible.

1st--May 4 - 8

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=uRDOHNXEKIA>

Think about and discuss ways parents protect their offspring (children). Some ideas to explore might be as follows. Do we provide shelter for our children? How do we get food? Where does our water come from? Does our use of sound/speech help protect our progeny? Can those same sounds express ways to have our needs met? It might also be fun to investigate what is happening to populations of organisms on our planet now that most humans are staying home.