

TITLE OF PRESENTATION:

Abstract

In 150 words or less, provide an overview of your study. Draw attention to the significance of your study, the method employed to gather and analyse data, and the salient findings.

Key Words

List 3 to 5 keywords related to your study

Background of Study

In 200 words or less, set the background for your study. Describe the problem you are investigating and how this is an issue which warrants attention. Draw on current literature to support your claims. Content words in your title should be elaborated in this section.

Statement of Problem

In 200 words or less present the research gap you are addressing. This should be done by locating your study in relation to the limitations and recommendations described in recently published literature.

Significance of Study

In 150 words or less, explain how the findings of your study contribute to advancing English Language Education. Describe how the findings impact classroom practices, and/or policy decisions.

Research Questions

List your research questions here.

Method

In 200 words or less, describe your data collection and data analysis procedures.

Findings and Discussion

In 200 words or less, discuss your key findings and draw attention to how the findings confirm or contest previously held assumptions.

If yours is an on-going project, highlight some initial observations you have been able to make based on the data available to you and discuss how these early observations confirm or contest previously held assumptions.

Limitations

In 100 words or less, explain the limitations of your study.

Conclusion

In 150 words or less, draw conclusions from your findings and offer recommendations for future research. If yours is an on-going project, highlight this here and discuss how your study potentially contributes to English Language Education.

References

List all sources cited in this extended abstract. Adhere to guidelines provided at <https://apastyle.apa.org/> .