

DelCo Gives Day Clothing Drive to Benefit The Wardrobe & Cradles to Crayons
Donations Can Be Dropped Off at Three DelCo Locations

(Delaware County) – Clean out the whole family’s closets to combat clothing insecurity in Delaware County! The Wardrobe and Cradles to Crayons are partnering to collect new and gently used clothing, shoes, and accessories for all ages (including outerwear and new toiletries). Help recycle, repurpose, and reuse items to keep textiles out of landfills, give clothing an extended life, and help individuals in our immediate community with clothing that makes them feel good.

ABOUT CRADLES TO CRAYONS PHILADELPHIA

Three in five children in Philadelphia are at risk of experiencing Clothing Insecurity—the lack of access to affordable, adequate, and appropriate clothing. And no government programs are dedicated to ensuring that children have the basics they need—such as clothing, diapers, or hygiene products. Since 2007, Cradles to Crayons (C2C) has stepped up to fill this need in Philadelphia, serving more than 1 million children. Founded in Boston in 2002, Cradles to Crayons (C2C) provides children from birth through age 12, living in homeless or low-income situations, with clothing and other essential items they need to thrive—at home, at school, and at play—for free. Cradles to Crayons distributes new and high-quality used children’s goods free of charge through a network of Service Partners. C2C sets a gold standard of individual, family, and corporate volunteer engagement, and through its “Giving Factories®” provides unique, hands-on opportunities to directly help local families.
