other Cinderella story

The traditional Cinderella was identified a Cinderella story because it has three elements: helper, villains and defining objects.

“other Cinderella story” is a kind and beautiful girl attract Mr. right by dancing in a master party. After her parents died, the main character Mary was brought up by a not popular star. Her guardian and her guardian's two daughters treated her badly. The here Joey held a big dance match. Every girl tried her best to dance with him. Mary has opportunities to take part in the party with her friend's help. Joey is attracted by her beautiful dance. Then she came back quickly only left a music player. Joey found her by the music player. Her guardian's two daughters envied her and caused many misunderstanding between them. At last, they overcame all difficulties and made sure their relationship. In the film, it has helper Tami, defining objects and the villains are guardian and guardian's two daughters.” other Cinderella story” qualified as a Cinderella story because it has helper, villains and defining objects.

The first element is helper. The function of helper is to make main character to get chances so that they can get real love. In traditional Cinderella, the helpers are birds. They help Cinderella to do the housework and give her opportunities to join in the dancing party. With their help, Cinderella got real love. In the movie, the helper is Tami. She supported Mary to seek the Joey and help them to solve misunderstanding. She also gave heroine the chance to join dancing party. The second element is villains. The villains are to treat heroine badly and prevent them to get real love. In traditional Cinderella story, the villains are her stepmother and her two sisters. They treated her badly and made her do much housework. When she wanted to join in the dancing party, her stepmother rejected her and embarrassed her. In the movie, the villains are her guardian and her guardian's two daughters. They treated Mary badly and also gave her much housework. When Mary and Joey fell in love with each other, they also caused some misunderstanding between them. They also had some thoughts to reject Mary to join in the dancing party. The last element is defining object. The defining object is to find out Cinderella. It can prove who is the real Cinderella. In traditional Cinderella, the defining object is slipper. The prince found out Cinderella by slipper. And her two sisters also cut their foot to adjust to the slipper. The prince found they are not real Cinderellas with the help of birds. In the movie the defining object is music player. It helped Joey to find the girl who is dancing with him. Her guardian's daughters pretended that they are the owner of music player. Joey found they are not real cinderellas. At last, Mary released music that they dancing in the party. Joey gave back the music player to her and knew she is the girl who was dancing with him.

From the three basic elements of Cinderella story, I think the film is a Cinderella story.
