

GREENACRES GOES BOO'ING!

'Tis the season for Tricks and Treats! Boo'ing is the perfect way to get your whole family into the Halloween spirit. Purchase your Boo Bags here!

WHAT IS IT?

Boo'ing is a long-standing Scarsdale tradition where kids leave a bag of treats on a friend's doorstep with a note that says "You've Been Boo'ed!", ring the bell, and run away. This festive fun gives the classic ding dong ditch a family-friendly feel! Since 2021, Greenacres has organized a special boo bag experience for our students.

HOW DOES IT WORK?

Everyone who participates and pays the $20 fee will be assigned one of their classmates to boo. The PTA will provide a fully-stocked Boo Bag, as well as the name and address of the person your student will be boo'ing. Everyone will pick up their bags on October 17th (location to be announced soon).

Then, one night after dark (but before 8 PM!), sneak to your assigned classmate's front door and leave your little Mystery Bag of Halloween goodies on their doorstep.

IMPORTANT THINGS TO NOTE!

1. DO NOT open the bag that you pick up on the 17th! The contents should be a surprise for everyone.
2. Fill out the clues about yourself! But try not to easily give away your identity.
3. You MUST boo your assigned classmate before October 29th!
4. Don't wait until the last minute. Your Greenacres friends are eagerly awaiting their BOO.
5. Visit Before the Witching Hour. Aim for 5pm-7pm so you don't interrupt anyone's bed time - and definitely do it before 8 PM.
6. Ring the bell and run! If you decide to dress up while boo'ing it's a good idea to wear a glow stick or something reflective. Parents, please make sure to accompany your kiddos on their boo'ing adventure!

Boo'ing friends and classmates is a really great way for families to get into the not-so-spooky spirit of Halloween. If you get caught, no big deal! Sometimes the best part is hiding in the bushes to boo a friend after they open the door!

WISHING EVERYONE A SAFE AND HAPPY HALLOWEEN!