

What's in your Wallet? Municipal government Provincial government Federal government

You've just returned from a trip and are unpacking. You realize it's been a long time since you cleaned out your bag and wallet. You come across various items and pieces of identification, and begin to examine them a bit more closely. See what you find, and how these documents relate to different levels of government.

Answer with: Municipal, Provincial, Federal or ALL OF THEM

Health card

Oops! You realize that your health card is about to expire. The office you would deal with to renew it would be at which level/levels? _____

Correct Answer- Write the reasons this level of government is responsible for this - point form

Passport

While examining your passport, you're reminded of all the great places you've visited! You notice that almost all of the pages in your passport have been stamped and wonder if you can add more pages. What level/levels of government would you ask? _____

Correct Answer- Write the reasons this level of government is responsible for this - point form

Birth Certificate

You find your birth certificate is torn and you cannot read your date of birth. Which level of government would you contact? _____

Correct Answer- Write the reasons this level of government is responsible for this - point form

Driver's License

You double-check your drivers license and realize it is about to expire. What level/levels of the government would be responsible for this? _____

Correct Answer- Write the reasons this level of government is responsible for this - point form

RCMP

You see the RCMP musical ride on TV. You realize that the Mounties on the horses are real police officers. You wonder at what level of government the RCMP deals with in policing matters.

Correct Answer- Write the reasons this level of government is responsible for this - point form

Indian Status (First Nations Status)

You've still got your partner's Indian status card in your bag too. You'd better get that back to them. At what level of government does someone with Indian status qualify for programs and services?

Correct Answer- Write the reasons this level of government is responsible for this - point form

Recycling

You come across a "to do" list containing a reminder to put out the recycling in your garbage. You wonder which level of government is responsible for picking up the recycling.

Correct Answer- Write the reasons this level of government is responsible for this - point form

Alcohol

You find the receipt for the nice bottle of wine you brought back for your parents. What level of Government is responsible for alcohol legislation in Canada? _____

Correct Answer- Write the reasons this level of government is responsible for this - point form

Foreign currency

You have foreign money and want to replace it with Canadian currency now that you are back in Canada. What level of government is responsible for producing our physical money. _____

Correct Answer- Write the reasons this level of government is responsible for this - point form