

2023 ICA GCSC First-time Reviewer Workshop

In early November, the Global Communication and Social Change Division (GCCS), in collaboration with the Mobile Communication Division, will hold an online workshop for members who will be submitting and/or reviewing ICA papers for the first time. As all submitters are expected to participate in the reviewing, the Division officers will discuss the paper selection process, inclusive reviewing strategies, and provide guidance as to what is expected in a review. We encourage all ICA Early Career scholars and PhD student members to join us for this workshop!

The workshop will be joined by the division's officers, Saba Bebawi (chair, GCSC), Wenhong Chen (vice-chair, GCSC), Michael Kim (student and early career representative, GCSC), and Waqas Ejaz (international liaison, Mobile Comm). We will also have the opportunity to hear about experiences from last year's ICA Star Reviewers. The workshop will take place online via Zoom on Thursday, November 9, 2023 (8 PM, GMT) at these times:

- 12 pm in Los Angeles
- 3 pm in New York
- 5 pm in Rio de Janeiro
- 9 pm in Berlin
- 11 pm in Istanbul
- 1:30 am in Delhi (Friday, November 10)
- 4 am in Singapore (Friday, November 10)
- 5 am in Seoul (Friday, November 10)
- 7 am in Sydney (Friday, November 10)

If you would like to take part in this free workshop, please complete this very short registration form before November 7th. We will provide details on how to join the session to registered participants.

For more information about the reviewing process for the ICA Annual Conference, you can check this review guide published on the association's website.

If you have any questions, please contact:
Michael Kim, GCSC Student & Early Career Rep.
kimm19@newpaltz.edu