ICNEV Learning Center — Hifz & Sunday Program, Hybrid Program Sponsorship Policy

Purpose:

To ensure that every student has access to Quran, Arabic, and Islamic Studies education, regardless of financial hardship, while maintaining the sustainability of the program and fairness for all families.

How It Works:

- Sponsorships provide full to partial fee reductions (100%-25%) based on demonstrated need.
- Families must apply each school year upon registration.
- A confidential committee will review all applications.
- Families should submit last year's Tax Returns

- Students receiving sponsorship must show consistent attendance and respectful behavior.

Programs qualified to apply for sponsorship are: Hifiz and Sunday (in person), and Hybrid

Community Support:

We encourage the community to donate to the Hifz & Education Scholarship Fund to support our students in need and sustain the program without financial strain on the masjid.

How to Apply:

- Complete the Sponsorship Application Form and submit it to the Education Director by July 30.
- Families will receive a decision within 1–2 weeks.

Review & Renewal:

- Sponsorship is not automatic; families must reapply every school year.
- Sponsorship may be adjusted based on changing circumstances or program budget.

This policy ensures dignity, transparency, and equal opportunity for all students, InshaAllah.
