Connection and Belonging

Students have a variety of different reasons for non attendance, and poor grades. Our counselors run a circle group designed to decrease student absences and increase motivation by creating connection and belonging in our Restorative Circle Attendance Group. This group is designed for students who are frequently absent or struggling in school. The goals of the group are to:

- Support student belonging and connection
- Increase overall attendance, grades, test scores and trajectory towards graduation

To participate please contact your child's counselor and take a moment to complete and return the SRIS Group Parent Permission Form.
