Ed 100 Leadership Opportunity

The Ed100 Academy is a free program that started in 2020 and has grown to include diverse students from hundreds of California high schools. This is an AMAZING leadership opportunity for students to expand their knowledge of the California education system, so we want as many students as possible to be involved in this incredible program.

The Academy program consists of a series of monthly discussion meetings that culminate in a free three-day online conference in the early summer. The monthly discussions are student-led and help members connect with one another and learn about opportunities, such as the student position on the State Board of Education. Students who become members of the Academy during the school year are in an excellent position to benefit from the summer conference, which is also free. Speakers have included inspiring student leaders as well as notable adults including U.S. Senator Alex Padilla, Sal Khan (Khan Academy), Mary Perry (CAPTA), Marc Berman (CA Assembly), Andrew Sutherland (Quizlet), and many others. Various speakers candidly discuss Racial, LGBTQIA, Education advocacy and answer questions from the attendees.

More information can be found here: ed100.org/academy. The application link for students is here: bit.ly/ed100apply-2122.
