

SL: I Have an Idea, Gillian

Hey Gillian,

I recently came across your channel and I was inspired by how you're helping people find ways to make money outside of their 9-5. It seems like your audience can really learn how to achieve their financial goals.

As I was looking through your page, I saw your video about how to make content creation easier and faster. I genuinely enjoyed the section about organizing your time because even though I don't use Asana, staying organized with a task list is what sent my production over the roof.

After analyzing your website, market, and niche thoroughly, I identified some aspects in which your brand can improve and potentially achieve higher conversion rates for your programs. Since doing so, I actually went ahead and put together a short email sequence for you.

Would you like me to send it over?

Best regards,

Alex
