

UnderHolo VA Casting Call

A group of girls are hoping to run a successful VTuber agency so that they can chill out together for the rest of their lives but, unfortunately, the VTuber industry is secretly rigged by an underground syndicate called UnderHolo.

VTuber VA In The Game Explained

- This game is not fully voice-acted but the VTuber aesthetic leads to a natural opportunity to have voice-acted sections for 4 livestreaming scenes, culminating in a collab scene where everyone will get doxed in the story.
- This performance will primarily be carried by your voice because there will be minimal assets available for these livestreams (e.g. you won't have a full VTuber sprite to act for but just a small profile picture).
- Recordings will occur from week 2 of the jam starting. Please consider your schedule before auditioning for this role.

Audition Submission Explained

- The four VTuber roles available (detailed further below) are :
  1. Guy with anime girl VTuber model for personal reasons.
  2. Easily spooked girl with iconic screams when jumpscared.
  3. Endearing girl who will lose the agency money despite her best efforts.
  4. Aggressive FPS gamer girl who has an incurable primary immunodeficiency and is unable to go outside.
- If you are auditioning for multiple roles, send one email with all your auditions.
Send your auditions to CuteShadowStudio@outlook.com
- I am reviewing these emails manually so choose a descriptive subject line such as 'Spooktober UnderHolo Audition' and include any relevant information in the body as to why you would be suited for the role.
- UPDATE: Closing TODAY 23:00 GMT
- You do not have to read the sample lines verbatim. Read them as if you were livestreaming on Twitch.

4 Available Roles Below

1 - Guy with anime girl VTuber model for personal reasons.

Premise

A hard-working office worker male guy who just wants to feel like a cute anime girl in all ways but physically when relaxing at home.

This is intended to be funny but also please take it seriously. There are lots of males who use female avatars for many reasons.

If the premise isn't immediately obvious to you then I recommend watching this video:

 Why Men Love Playing as Girls

Voice

You are not putting on a cute anime trap girl voice. I am looking for an average male Joe so the voice should not contain too much swagger or charisma. It should lean towards the nervous and awkward end.

Sample Lines

"Good evening f-folks. I hope you've had..err..a good day. This is my first time trying VTubing so please bear with me as I'm still learning."
"My family? No, they don't know anything about this. Honestly, I would be a bit embarrassed if they found out, hehe."
"My VTuber model? I chose it because it has a smaller hitbox, of course! What? You don't believe me?"
"You know, sometimes it takes a man to become the best girl. Ever thought of that?"

2 - Easily spooked girl with iconic screams when jumpscared.

Premise

She doesn't like playing horror games but people love watching her get spooked.

Voice

On the higher-pitched side, they are playing anime girl avatars. Screaming is required.

Sample Lines

"Guys this is NOT funny. I don't know why I agreed to play this- [gets jumpscared] EEEEEK!"

"Oh, sweet little kitty cat. You're my only source of comfort in this haunted house...
[the cat just spoke] Sorry what was that you just said, Mr Kitty-
[realises the cat was not in fact a sweet kitty cat] EEEEEK!
[panting] NO, why does it have to be the cat as well :(
[amusing sobbing]."

"NEVER AGAIN. I don't care what you guys say I'm going to play farming sims today."

3 - Endearing girl who will lose the agency money despite her best efforts.

Premise

The game is presented as a stat-raising tycoon sim so this character is a cruel twist on that formula. No matter how hard she tries, she will perform terribly in numbers.

Voice

On the higher-pitched side, they are playing anime girl avatars. A tinge of sadness behind your positive facade.

Sample Lines

"It's okay if it's just us today. We can still have a great time together, right?"
"I know I'm not the most popular, but I'm really, really thankful for everyone who watches even if it's just you."
"Hey, um- is anyone there? Oh, you are! I'm so happy you stopped by even if it's just for a little bit!"
"I may not have the biggest numbers, but I have the biggest heart for each of you! Thank you for being here with me!"

4 - Aggressive FPS gamer girl who has an incurable primary immunodeficiency and is unable to go outside.

Premise

A girl with an incurable immunodeficiency who can't leave her house. She can express her true energy, which she physically is unable to in real life, by streaming action games as her VTuber character.

Voice

On the higher-pitched side, they are playing anime girl avatars. Little gremlin hyper-energy vibe. Highly competitive but only because she's excited and all in good fun.

Sample Lines

"Winner winner! I feel awesome! But don't worry if you're not as good as me yet—I'll wreck you any day."
"GG! I may have destroyed you, but it's all in good fun here. Let's keep having fun, you scrubs, yeah?"
"You thought you could win? Not a chance! But hey, don't be sad—I'm here if you need someone to cry to after the match."
