

CONFERENCE BURSARY APPLICATION

The European Association for the History of Medicine and Health awards financial assistance for PhD students, precariously employed or financially insecure members toward the costs of attending the Oslo conference. Applicants should note that

- they must be a member of EAHMH at the time of application,
- bursaries are awarded on the basis of financial need and date of application, are limited in number, and are not retrospectively awarded,
- we fund a limited amount (6-8) bursaries for this conference,
- each bursary will not exceed 250 Euro.

APPLICANT DETAILS

Name:	Title:
Preferred Pronouns:
Institution (if any, otherwise please state 'None'):
Address (can be email) for correspondence:
I have been a member of the Society for the European Association for the History of Medicine since: My registration/order number for my EAHMH membership is:
Total amount requested from EAHMH
Please provide a full and detailed breakdown of funds requested (e.g. accommodation per night, transportation type):
Please detail your contribution (e.g. presentation title; how it relates to your research):

A. STATEMENT OF SUPPORT – Postgraduate students

If you are a student, please have your supervisor confirm that attendance at this event is part of your program of research, and that funding for travel is not otherwise available.
Supervisor's name:
Supervisor's signature: (if completing electronically, please have your supervisor send this or a statement of support by email)	Date:

OR

B. STATEMENT – Precariously employed or financially insecure

Please explain the details of your current position, the year in which you completed your studies, and your career to date. Please also elaborate on your financial need, explaining why funding for travel is not otherwise available.

Completed application forms should be sent electronically to the treasurer of the EAHMH Nils Hansson: nils.hansson@hhu.de

GDPR 2016 / Data Protection Act 2018

The information you provide in this form will be held securely by EAHMH solely for the purposes of processing your application, notifying you of the result and to comply with any statutory obligations. The form will be deleted after being processed.