Good morning Newtown High School! Today is Wednesday, November 12th, and it's a C day. The order is advisory 5, 6, 7, 8, 1, and 2. Please stop in the hallways and stand for the pledge.

I pledge allegiance to the flag of the United States of America and to the republic, for which it stands, one nation under god, indivisible, with liberty and justice for all.

Please remain standing for a moment of gratitude

Thank you.

The next Class of 2027 Class Council meeting will be this Thursday, November 13th, at 7:30 am in B252. All Juniors are welcome to attend. If you have any questions, please reach out to Miss Kimberly or Ms. Mouch

Hello NHS students,

The Math National Honor Society is currently accepting applications from all grade levels. This society works to foster an interest in math within the community through volunteering and tutoring. In order to apply, students must have completed geometry and have a grade point average of 85 or higher. Leadership positions are available to students with additional experience or interest.

Look for flyers around the school for the google classroom code

Love a murder mystery? Come see the Newtown high school production of clue! You can find tickets for the 13th-16th on posters around the school.

College Rep Visits! Today, Wednesday, we have a visit from CT State - our local, FREE Community College. It will be held at 10:25 in the Career Center. Come learn how to start your college journey for FREE at CT State

The American Legion Post 202 is hosting its annual Oratorical Contest on Wednesday, November 19. This is a valuable opportunity to build confidence, improve public speaking skills, enhance your college resume AND earn cash prizes. Sign ups are due by Friday, November 14 so see Mrs. Jacobs in the Career Center if you are interested

The announcements are brought to you by the NHS Student Government!

Thank you and make today a patriotic day!
