Some characters come across this door during their travels...What could be behind the door? Write to narrate (tell) a story about this adventure.

What is the problem? What goes wrong?
How is it solved and fixed?

Think about:

- where your story is set
- who your characters are – what they do, what they say, and how they think and feel
- the problem and how it is solved
- the order of your ideas and how they are linked.
