

1. Complete the sentences about the conversations:

 Kara "Do you mind helping me?"	 Justine "No, not at all."
--	---

a. Kara asked Justine to help her.

 John & Phil "Do you want to check out a movie with us tonight, Dave?"	 Dave "Yeah, that would be great!"
--	--

b. John and Phil invited Dave to see a movie with them tonight.

 Wendy "Claire, eat your vegetables!"	 Claire "But I don't want to, Mommy."
--	--

c. Wendy told Claire to eat her vegetables.

Chris

“Don’t forget your bag, Jane.”

Jane

“Oh, yeah. Thanks, Chris.”

d. Chris reminded Jane to take her bag.

Stacey

“Mr. James, may I drink coffee in your class?”

Mr. James

“Of course you may.”

e. Mr. James allowed Stacey to drink coffee in his class.

Police Officer

“Show me your bag!”

Jesse

“Here you are, Officer.”

f. The police officer ordered Jesse to show him his bag.

Doctor

“If I were you, I would get lots of rest and eat healthily.”

Taylor

“Okay. I will try.”

g. The doctor advised Taylor to get lots of rest and eat healthily.

Denise

“Could you please show me what I’m doing wrong with my homework?
Please!”

Winny

“Okay.”

h. Denise begged / asked Winny to show her what she was doing wrong with her homework.

Gabby

“Sit!”

Andre

“ ... ”

i. Gabby told Andre to sit.

Manager

“Please complete the work by Monday.”

Scott

“I will do my best.”

j. The manager asked Scott to complete the work by Monday.

2. Rewrite the sentences, keeping the same meaning:

- a. Julian wanted to know if Jack could assist him with the task.
Julian asked Jack to assist him with the task.

b. Stephanie was surprised to see that it was raining when she left work.
Stephanie didn't expect it to be raining when she left work.

c. I think you should come with me.
I would like you to come with me.

d. I am depending on my parents to pay for my university.
I need my parents to pay for my university.

e. Geoff asked Omar if he wanted to go see the game with him.
Geoff invited Omar to see the game with him.

f. I told you that you had to study.
I told you to study.

g. My parents told me that it was okay to stay out late.
My parents allowed me to stay out late.

h. I think New York will win the championship this year.
I expect New York to win the championship this year.

i. I wish there were more parks in my town.
I want there to be more parks in my town.

I want my town to have more parks.

j. Our teacher told us not to forget to study for the test.
Our teacher reminded us to study for the test.

k. John's wife didn't let him buy the expensive car.
John's wife didn't allow him to buy the expensive car.

I. The hairstylist always recommends the shampoo to her customers.
The hairstylist always advises her customers to use the shampoo.

3. Describe what each person says with infinitives. Some need objects, but some do not.

a. Julie: "May I go to the bathroom?" (ask)

Julie asked to go to the bathroom.

b. Manager: "Evelyn, could you please come to work at 8 AM tomorrow morning?" (would like)

The manager would like Evelyn to come to work at 8 AM tomorrow.

c. Jack: "I hope it rains tomorrow." (want)

Jack wants it to rain tomorrow.

d. Andrea: "Please give me a call this evening, Leah." (need)

Andrea needs Leah to give her a call this evening.

e. Jackson: "I'm sure I will fail." (expect)

Jackson expects to fail.

f. Charlie: "Could you give me your autograph, Michael?" (want)

Charlie wants Michael to give him his autograph.

g. Caden: "My boss expects me to complete my work by Friday afternoon." (need)

Caden needs to complete his work by Friday afternoon.

h. Ethan: "I feel like having a glass of wine." (want)

Ethan wants to have a glass of wine.

i. Logan: "I'm sure Chicago will win the league title this year." (expect)

Logan expects Chicago to win the league title this year.

j. Pedro: "Could you give me a hand, Michael?" (ask)

Pedro asked Michael to give him a hand.

4. Complete each sentence with a verb from the table in either its gerund or infinitive forms:

take	see	wear	do	stop	come
apologize	have	buy	de	play	eat

- a. What did Michelle advise you to do about the problem?
- b. Shall we call Janet and invite her to come with us to the park?
- c. Wow, this old photo is amazing. Stacey, do you remember having this strange hairstyle?
- d. I absolutely love to play / playing video games on my new TV.
- e. Who are you going to choose to take with you on your vacation? Your mother or father?
- f. What do you hope to buy when you go shopping on the weekend?
- g. Why doesn't your company allow you to wear / wearing jeans to work?
- h. I really regret not seeing that movie in the theatres. I'm sure it would have been more enjoyable on the big screen.
- i. Never stop doing what you love.
- j. Would it be possible for you to ask Angela to stop wearing such strong perfume to work? It's giving me a headache.
- k. What would you like to eat for dinner tonight?
- l. Do you intend to apologize to her for what you did?