This document is about Hard Drive, a 29 year old male, founder and host of a custom server named Fantasy Town. During his time running Fantasy Town, Hard Drive recruited multiple minors aged 15, with whom he engaged in inappropriate behavior despite knowing their age. He tried meeting up in person with one of them and officially dated another one.

Events described in this document took place over multiple years. Once accusations came to light, Hard Drive went on a hiatus and tried hiding from public attention. By now he seems to think that everyone moved on and started talking about potentially coming back. There's no indication his future behavior is going to change, so this document aims to reach any community he may attempt to utilize in the future.

This version censors sexual content. It is still not recommended for anyone below 13 years old. If you're 18 or older, you can find an uncensored version.

Champie's experience

Hard Drive's behavior was first brought to attention in 2021, when a 15 year old artist for Fantasy Town, Champie, shared his concerns regarding Hard Drive wanting to meet up in person.

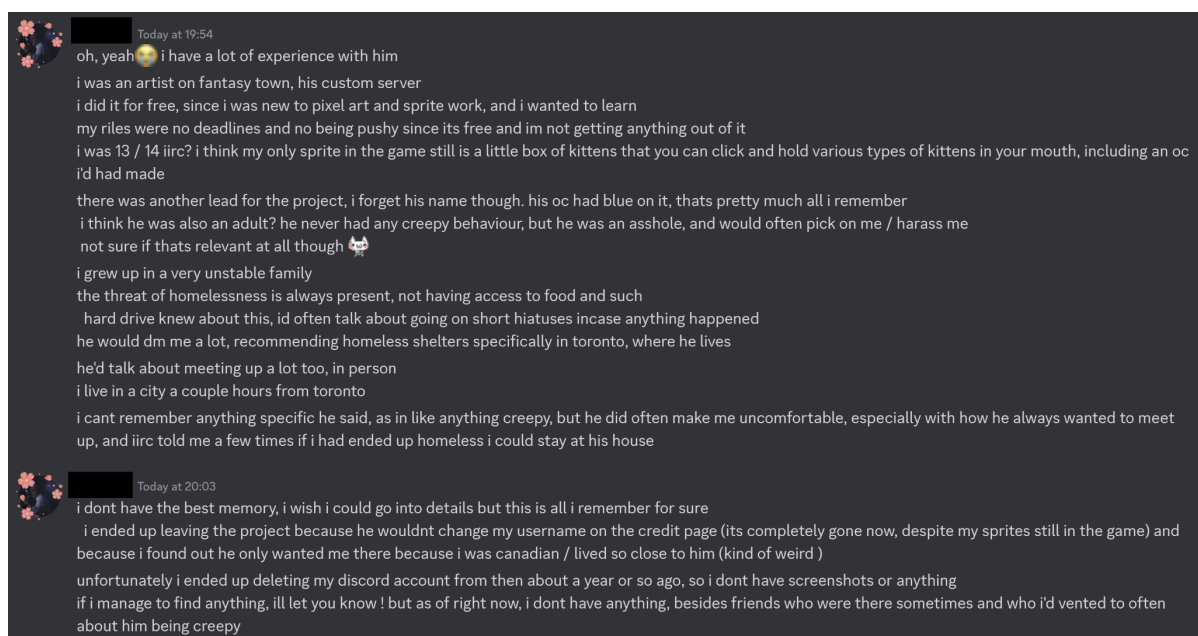

Both Hard Drive and Champie live in Canada, and Champie had confided in Hard Drive about his difficult home situation. Hard Drive used this information to suggest that Champie could stay at his home should he end up homeless. During this time, Hard Drive was approximately 25 years old, whilst Champie was 15.

Champie also received screenshots of a conversation between Hard Drive and his co-lead where Hard Drive admits the only reason he kept Champie around is due to him also being Canadian.

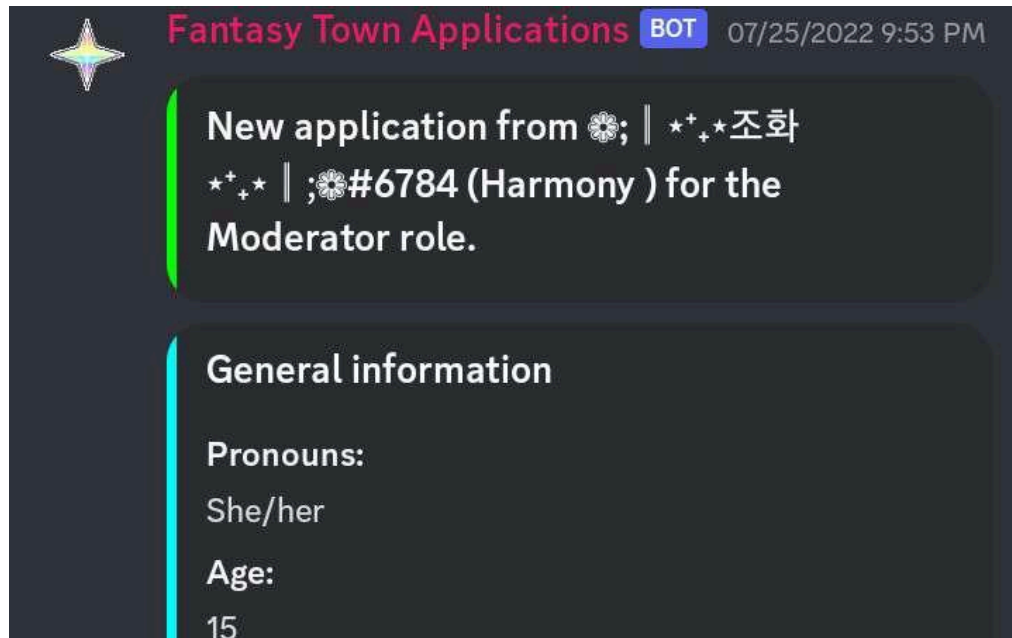

Champie later recounted his 2021 experience with Hard Drive. His name has been censored in the following screenshot as he now goes by a different name.

Harmony's experience

Harmony applied to join Fantasy Town's team in July 2022 when she was 15, with her team application containing her actual age. Hard Drive was 26 at that time, and he accepted her application.

Harmony recounts Hard Drive behaving inappropriately towards her whilst she was 15 to the point it became normalized to her and she no longer felt uncomfortable with his behavior.

Harmony at some point lost her old Discord account, so the archived conversations start from August 2022, when she was still 15.

In January 2023, Hard Drive requested photos of Harmony's face, which she agreed to. He sent her a photo of his face in return.

In March 2023 Harmony mentioned her by then being 16, reaffirming Hard Drive was aware of her current age.

Upon learning Harmony was speaking out about his behavior towards her, Hard Drive responded by refusing accountability for his actions and instead accused Harmony of lying about her age despite there being multiple instances of her age being available on Discord at the time, and her Fantasy Town account's date of birth being accurate.

Hard Drive also attempts to blame the inappropriate discussions between the two of them on Harmony despite her being 15-16 years old whilst he was 26-27. From what's shown in the screenshots, he has never attempted to shut down any kind of inappropriate conversation with the involved minors, but instead was initiating such conversations and asking minors to exchange personal information and photos.

Hard Drive Hôm nay lúc 11:04

I don't really know what he said. I assume it's the same things Harmony is trying to say.

And I don't even know why you're "involved." This situation is completely out of hand. And like. You and Sandra are pretty much the only ones asking me anything.

And I don't think I need to prove Harmony faked her age. I haven't said anything to her, and even she herself will say that we've never dated and that I've never asked her out, nothing. She's using the only like, 3 messages that mean literally nothing against me.

As for Lav, I wish I did have evidence of that. But it was done in calls and stuff.

Hard Drive Hôm nay lúc 20:37

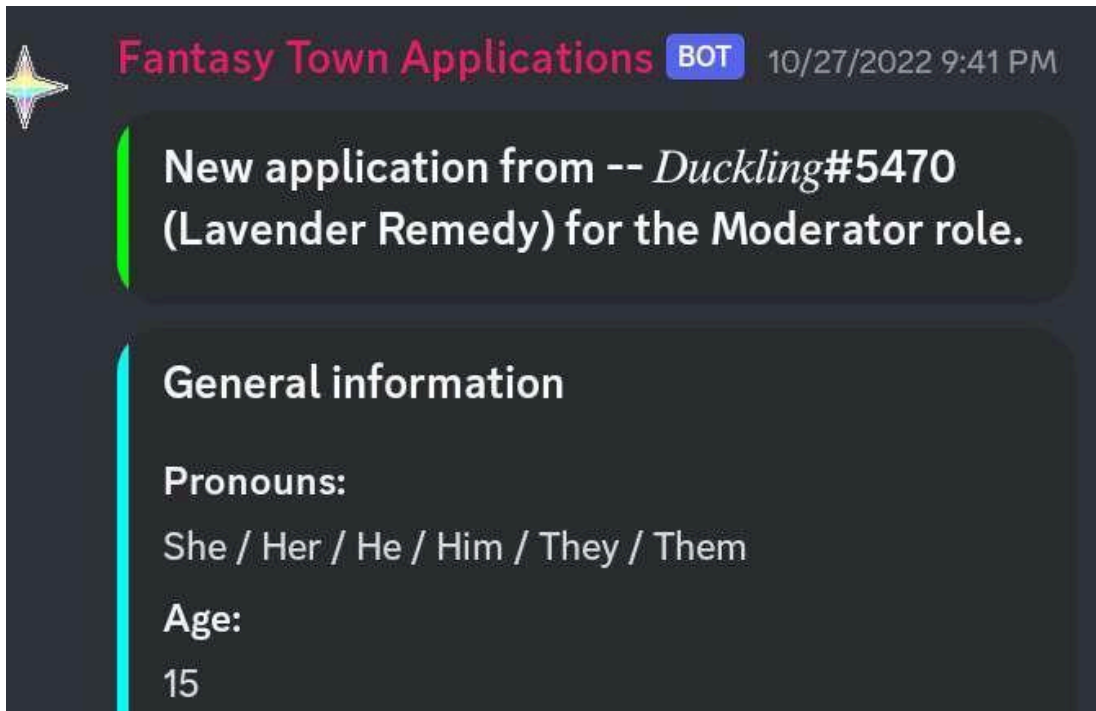

Btw. Just like. Looking at the final message in that screenshot. "Well I'm guessing he's not ok lmao" She really doesn't give a single fuck about how I feel, she's laughing at me probably not feeling well... Wth is wrong with her...?

Lavender Remedy's experience

Lavender Remedy (also going by other names in the following screenshots) was 15 years old when she first started talking with Hard Drive in April 2022 whilst Hard Drive was 26. By August, Hard Drive began making inappropriate jokes when talking to Lavender.

Lavender applied to join Fantasy Town's team in October 2022 when she was still 15, with her team application containing her actual age. As with Harmony, Hard Drive accepted her application.

In February 2023, the day after she turned 16, Hard Drive's behavior became much more inappropriate and included him discussing sexual behavior with Lavender and sending her an explicit video. Hard Drive was 27 by that time.

In March 2023, less than a month before they officially began dating, Lavender created a romantic piece of artwork depicting her ponysona with Hard Drive's ponysona. Lavender recounts that Hard Drive planned it with her and that the piece was meant to be 'a prank'.

Hard Drive is aware of where Lavender lives and may be aware that although 16 is the age of consent in her state, this applies only if the other person is no older than 23. He avoids disclosing his real age simply saying that he's over 20, making Lavender unaware of them having an 11-year age gap. With that age gap the adult may be punishable by significant prison time.

Below, Hard Drive suggests dragging Lavender into bed with him. He'd suggest getting in bed with her multiple times in the following screenshots.

Hard Drive also asks Lavender to share her real name, and provides his own real name in return.

@ Hard Drive

Lavender recalls exchanging photos of her face with Hard Drive after he expressed curiosity regarding her appearance, and he responded to these photos by calling her beautiful. This behavior mirrors his interactions with Harmony, who was also asked to show her face.

Called me beautiful n stuff*

Later in March 2023, Hard Drive sent Lavender inappropriate artwork made for him by an ex-girlfriend, which he shared without any warning of its content. Following this, he confessed his love for Lavender and talked about how happy he felt with her.

@ Hard Drive

IT'S WEIRD AN ICKY AND DHDHJWSV

On April 1st 2023, Hard Drive proposes that he and Lavender begin dating. They decide to do so and continue exchanging romantic messages. Despite the date these messages were sent on, they weren't a joke.

Hard Drive Today at 3:38 PM

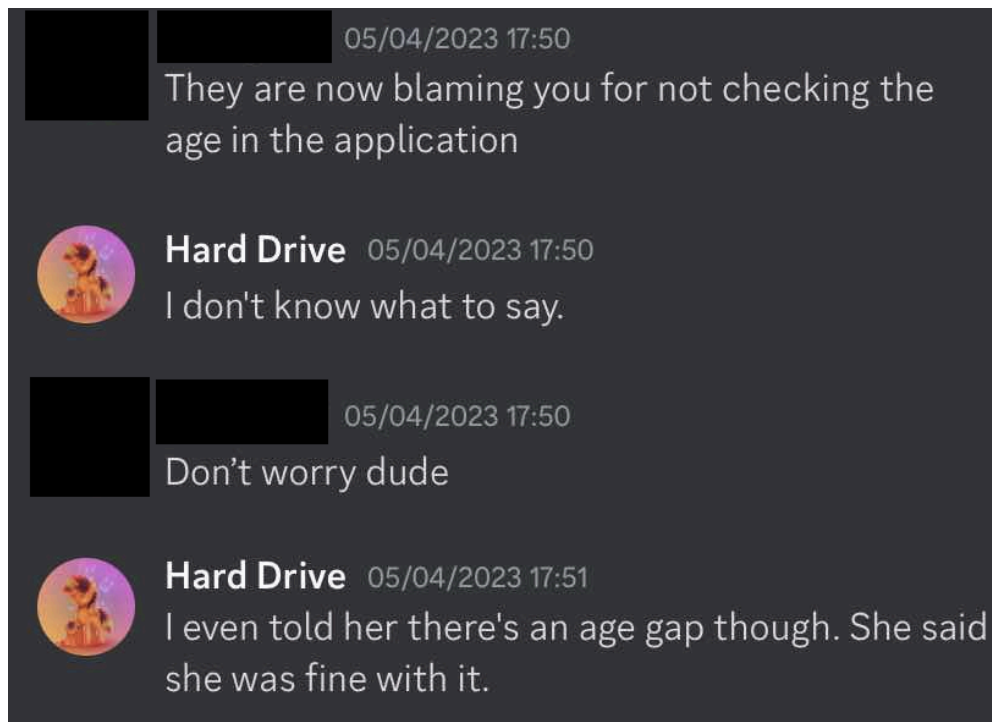

Cute. xD

By this point, Lavender wanted time to think what to do about her situation, and she made up a story about a car accident so she could get a breather.

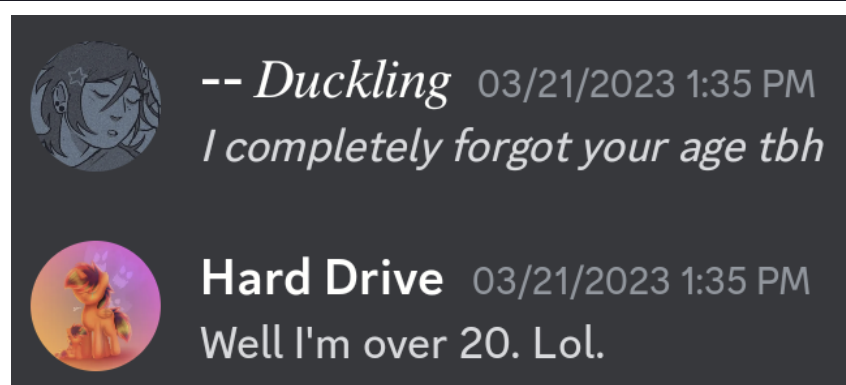

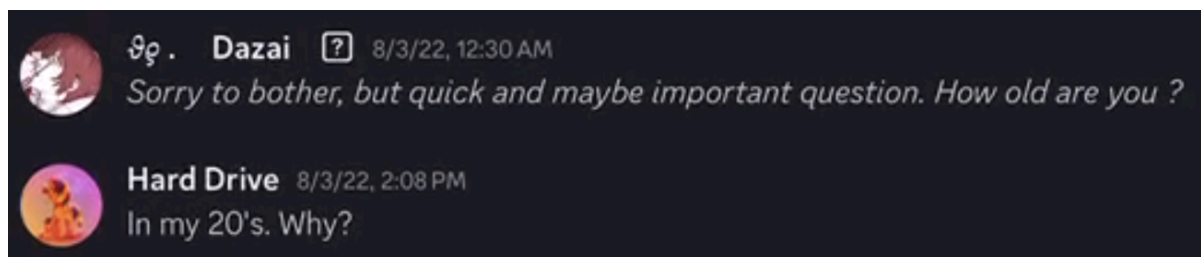

In May 2023, another otherwise uninvolved minor confronted Hard Drive regarding his relationship with Lavender. During this conversation, Hard Drive admits to dating Lavender.

Hard Drive states that Lavender was fine with their age gap. However, even while talking about them dating, Hard Drive dodged revealing his real age, leaving Lavender unaware that their age gap isn't just around 4 years, but 11.

Much like with Harmony, upon being informed that Lavender was speaking out about his behavior towards her, Hard Drive proceeded to blame Lavender.

Hard Drives claims that there were several instances of Lavender making advances towards him. The responsibility of an adult is to shut down any advances from a minor. He instead made inappropriate advances himself, and asked her to date him.

After Hard Drive learned about the accusations levied against him, he went on a hiatus. We kept monitoring what he's up to, and by now there are indications he potentially intends to eventually be back. He never expressed any regrets over his behavior and always blamed the minors, so there's no reason to think his future behavior is going to change. This document is made to spread awareness and it'd hopefully find its way into any community Hard Drive may attempt to utilize in the future. He currently appears in other communities under the name 'robbiemcleod56'.

To keep this document focused, it talks about Hard Drive specifically, but there are more adults involved. While running Fantasy Town, Hard Drive didn't just recruit minors he preyed upon, he also recruited adults who either behaved inappropriately towards minors themselves, or were covering up for Hard Drive's actions. Their nicknames are Synth, Sandra (aka Coldy) and SillyGrapesPresents (aka Serial Designation R or SD - R) and there's no dedicated document going over them, but you can check some of the screenshots depicting their behavior.
