As you are Expecting the best stories from me, It depends upon Whether for Film or for TV Serial or MINI WEB SERIES or for Modeling... Plz ask your question...

If you specify your need, I will tell you what all I have in my SCRIPT BANK for you, then from many in the bank you can select 1 which you or the client likes the best & I can further elaborate to you the whole story, with its TURNING POINTS, that normally a writer keeps in hand to whip into the story keeping a sharp eye on the ANALYTICS features for making scenes Viral if it is a Web Series...

If it is a Film we don't keep any TURNING POINT in Hand, Everything is pre-planned in the story, including A Flash Back, a Suspense, a Clue that opens in step by step sequence, till a Final Climax scene is reached at -THE END- scene, completing the meaning of the Film... Rgds...
