

THE SEND UK & IRELAND

Position: Creative Videographer/Editor

Location: Remote (With travel across the UK and Ireland)

Employment Type: Full-time

Salary: Self Funded

Reports to: Media Director

Application Contact: Ben Elliott, Media Director - belliott@thesend.uk

About The Send UK and Ireland

The Send is a movement aimed at empowering and inspiring Christian Gen Z individuals across the UK and Ireland to live out their faith boldly. With an upcoming arena tour that will stop in Belfast, Glasgow, Leeds, London, Dublin, and Cardiff, we're gearing up to reach thousands of young people with a message of hope and purpose.

Position Summary: We are seeking a talented Creative Videographer to join our team. This role is essential to creating captivating video content that aligns with the heart and mission of The Send. Your work will be instrumental in reaching our audience—Christian Gen Z aged 16-30—with powerful messages, both through short-form social media content and long-form storytelling pieces.

As part of our media team, you'll work remotely and independently, collaborating with others as needed. This role requires a strong understanding of both video production and the Christian faith, as well as the flexibility to travel to various cities on our tour, often at short notice.

Key Responsibilities:

- Produce, film, and edit high-quality video content that captures and communicates the vision of The Send.
- Develop a range of short-form and long-form video pieces for digital platforms, ensuring alignment with the brand and messaging of The Send.
- Participate in the upcoming arena tour across the UK and Ireland, filming key moments and producing compelling promotional content.
- Collaborate with our media and marketing teams to align video content with overall communications strategies.
- Ensure that all content is engaging, relevant, and tailored to resonate with a Christian Gen Z audience.
- Interpret and creatively express The Send's brand, values, and mission through each project.

Key Requirements:

- Proven experience as a videographer, with a portfolio showcasing a strong storytelling ability and video production skills.
 - Skilled in using professional video editing software (Final Cut, DaVinci, or Premiere Pro).
 - Access to suitable camera equipment.
 - Ability to work independently, take initiative, and make decisions quickly to capture impactful footage in a variety of settings.
 - Flexibility to travel across the UK and Ireland, sometimes at short notice.
 - Strong personal alignment with the Christian faith and values of The Send.
 - Understanding of marketing and social media trends, especially in reaching a Gen Z audience.
-

Application Details: To apply, please submit a portfolio or links to your work that best represent your videography skills and creative style.

Contact: Ben Elliott, Media Director - belliott@thesend.uk