10:30 - 12:30	Bibliotheek Sint-Gillis Emile Feronstraat 173 1060 Brussels 	Parallel programme in cooperation with OBIB (the umbrella organisation for Brussels Dutch-speaking libraries) for (library) partners from the Active Parenthood network. On the programme: - Helping low-literate adults explore the library: what good and interesting things are there in a library if you can't read properly? Quite a lot... This is a Brusselleer project that runs in a number of libraries. - Critical discussion round around Bookstart (Netherlands-Brussels): what goes well, where are gaps, what thresholds are there...? How do we try to come up with answers to these from our different working contexts? - Reading aloud at home: this year the Brussels Book Gang at Home turns 25 years old; interesting to look at the practice of reading aloud at home from the point of view of Thuis in	OBIB: - Stijn Callewaert - Els Patoor Bib Sint-Gillis: - Annemie Vanisterdael - Tine Pellegrims Stichting Lezen en Schrijven: - Reint van der Vlis (adviseur / Taalhuis Rotterdam) Bibliotheek Rotterdam - Ancella de Heer (Taalhuis) - Ellen Welschen (afdeling jeugd) Rozet (bib) Arnhem - Niesje Meijeringh - Doreen Keurentjes Stichting Aanzet: - Jennifer Timmer (adviseur)

		- General learning questions of the last meetings: what makes us good professionals to work with parents? How to work on a good basic attitude? How to ensure professionals look at parents with an open mind? - What do we still want to learn? - What about a bigger closing "multiplier" event in May 2024? Already some propositions for our next meeting in Luxembourg: - Can we meet with some decision makers (e.g. people from the ministry in charge of the plurilingue programme)? + can it be an idea to take some decision makers from the Netherlands and Brussels to Luxembourg? - Can we visit a kindergarten and primary school to see how they deal with multilingualism? Is there a through line from nursery to primary school?	EhB) - Ine Meersman (Ligo Brusselleer) - Katrien Maes (Ligo Brusselleer) - ?
