Privacy policy

we are committed to protecting the privacy and security of our users. Our mobile game BlockTowerpro is designed to provide a fun and engaging experience without collecting any personal data from our users.

Here

are some key points regarding our privacy policy:

· We do not collect any personal data from our users, including name, email, address, or phone number.

· We do not use cookies, tracking pixels, or other similar technologies that collect data about our users' browsing history or behavior.

· The only data we collect is related to game performance, such as the number of points earned and the level achieved.

· We use this data solely for the purpose of improving the game and providing a better user experience.

· We do not share any data with third-party advertisers, partners, or other organizations.

If

you have any questions or concerns about our privacy policy, please do not hesitate to contact us at [Your Contact Email]. Thank you for playing BlockTowerpro!
