

What has happened to Michelle?

Daniela Hantuchova and Katharine McPhee were the first to arrive at the Gym following another tough event in the UCC. The two leaders along with their counterpart Michelle Stafford from the Hot and the Dangerous usually got there early to set some schedules and look over events from the day before. Daniela and Katharine went to their respective offices and got their reports together for the boss and waited for Michelle. When she hadn't arrived after 30 minutes or so Katharine joined Daniela and the two went to look for Michelle because she was usually there at the same time as they got there.

Katharine McPhee: Dani have you seen Michelle yet. Her office is dark so she isn't here yet.

Daniela Hantuchova: No I haven't seen her, Maybe we need to go look for her.

The two leaders walked swiftly to Michelle's office where they found her office unlocked and dark. Katharine found the light switch and flipped it on to find the room in shambles.

Katharine: Kylie and the Barbies had something to do with this. We need to get a team together and go confront her.

Daniela: First we need to find Michelle.

They heard a moan and saw Michelle laying on the floor barely moving. They rushed over having to move some jumbled furniture and helped Michelle out of the office and to Daniela's car where they rushed her to the Hospital.

Nearly a half hour later the girls of the Hot and the Dangerous arrived for their workout and they didn't see anyone in charge, especially Michelle. The Boss caught them and asked where their leader was. Of course no one had seen her and the Boss said he would try to find her and in the meantime head to the gym to start their workouts.

Tracy Bregman took charge and got everyone going except for Hunter King who she took aside and informed her that Kylie was asking about her. Hunter then called her sister Joey and told her the circumstances. Word got to Kylie who was ready for the call from Tracy who told Kylie that the deal was on and what she would receive in return. Kylie volunteered money and Katherine Mcnamera in return for Hunter and the deal was on. No one asked any questions as Hunter was whisked away to the airport where she was transported to California to the Barbies camp.

A tiny bit of confusion ensued as Tracey informed the stable of what she had done and Sharon Case spoke up and asked who left her in charge and that Michelle should have been there before any decision was made about Hunter. Some angry words were exchanged as the stable began to take sides. Before anything could happen, The Boss returned and said that he was trying to get in touch with Daniela and Katharine but hadn't caught them yet. Noticing the hostility among the stable he asked where Hunter was and what the hostility was about.

It was Laura Wright who then spoke up saying that Tracey had taken over and had made a deal with Kylie for Hunter and The Boss did not seem happy. He took Tracey aside and she told him what she had done and the agreement with Kylie for Hunter. Tracey seemed to smile the whole time until the Boss told Tracey that she was not the leader and had no right to do what she did.

The Boss then called and had a long and slightly heated conversation with Kylie and finally the two agreed that the deal was done after Kylie upped the offer for more money for the inconvenience and apologized for the deal being processed without Michelle being involved and Kylie added that she knew nothing about where Michelle was and had no involvement in her disappearance.

The Boss finally called Tracey back in and told her that she was being suspended for her action for the remainder of the week until Michelle was located and informed about the situation and how Michelle wanted to proceed. Tracey left the gym and the Boss gathered the rest of the team together and informed them about Tracey being suspended and that they were to continue as if Michelle was there and he would oversee the workouts until Michelle returned.

An hour later Katharine and Daniela returned and gave the Boss an update on what they learned which was not much and the Boss told them what he knew and what he had done in response.

Katharine: Do we need to send in someone to get Hunter back.

Daniela: You know we can send some girls there to get her back.

Boss: That won't be necessary but we need to find out what happened. It doesn't sound like Kylie knows so it might not even have been them.

Daniela: Well we do know that after Michelle went down that it didn't take long for Kylie to go after Hunter.

Katharine: That's true Boss. Kylie might not know anything about it but someone in the Barbie stable tipped her off that Michelle was out of the picture. So what do we do?

Boss: Nothing right now let's check in with Michelle in a day or two and see if she might know anything or who did this to her. Right now we need to get everything back to normal here. So far I have been in talks with someone to take Hunter's place on the team. She is brand new but I have seen some tapes of her and she looks like someone to sign. I will let you know the details when I get them. For now we need to get ready to have Katherine McNamera join us. Do either of you want to deal with her?

Daniela: I have my hands full, Boss, with Laura and Mallory. Laura has been having issues and I am trying to get to the bottom of it.

Katharine: I will take her and work with her. I have seen a couple of her bouts and she has potential.

Boss: Good. Dani if you need me to talk to Laura I will Daniela: It's not a problem, Boss. I will handle it.

The meeting breaks up and the two leaders head to their respective teams and the Boss goes around to check on the two stables as they get in their workouts.

Two days later The Boss goes into the Hospital to check on Michelle.

Boss: So Michelle, how are you feeling?

Michelle: I'm good, Boss. I am just ready to get out of here and get back to my team.

Boss: So what happened, Who did this to you and why.

Michelle: Well from what I remember I was finishing my reports and finishing paperwork. When I finished I started to gather my stuff and that's when I was attacked.

Boss: Did you get a name or what they wanted?

Michelle: That is where my memory fails me. I didn't recognize the voice and whoever attacked me was very efficient. I don't remember them saying who it was. That is all still fuzzy.

Boss: Well I have news for you. Hunter is no longer a problem. Tracey traded her off to Kylie and the Barbies team for Katherine McNamera and some cash.

Michelle: Do what.

Boss: Yeah Hunter is not our problem anymore, maybe things will settle down with Kylie and her team now.

Michelle: Sort of Boss. I guess that you haven't heard but Hunter and Ashley Benson had some sort of issue and if she is now a Barbie, there could be trouble on the horizon. And who made this deal?

Boss: Tracey Bregman, She took it upon herself to make the deal. She told me that she got a phone call from Kylie saying that she had agreed to Hunter being traded and she went ahead and finished the deal with Kylie.

Michelle: Well that could be a problem because I was against Hunter leaving our stable. Tracey had no business making this deal. She will pay for that.

Boss: No she will not. I have already placed her on a brief suspension so you need not worry about her. I also took care of a replacement for Hunter with the money Kylie offered and when you return to the team, we will have a team meeting to sort this out.

Michelle: I hope you are right but Tracey overstepped her authority and that is not good for the team's spirit.

Boss: Just get back so we can deal with this and if you feel you should trade off Tracey then we will look into it.

Michelle: I just want her to have to pay for what she did.

Boss: Then make her work it out. You are the leader and I have your back.

Michelle: Some of the team is still wanting Tracey to lead.

At that time the discharge nurse came in and informed Michelle that she would be getting out that afternoon and some paperwork had to be finished before she could leave. The Boss let her get ready as he had received a call to get back to the gym because there was some trouble brewing. On the short drive back to the gym both the Boss and Michelle were quiet and they got to the gym within 30 minutes.

A few minutes earlier the disturbance that the Boss had been informed about had ignited a nasty brawl as Laura Wright and Sharon Case asked Tracey Bregman about what she had done.

Sharon Case: So you made it back Tracey we told you not to mess with something that you had no business getting involved in Tracey Bregman: Back off Sharon. You wouldn't understand the job of team leader if it bit you.

Sharon: I don't need to understand because Michelle is our leader until the Boss tells us otherwise.

Tracey: Well I don't see her anywhere around and for that matter I don't see the Boss either. So unless you want to do something about it I would suggest that you back off.

Tracey shoved Sharon angrily and started to move away. Laura Wright intersects her and steps in her way.

Laura Wright: You might have the others scared of you but you cannot scare me Tracey.

Tracey: Oh what are you going to do about it blondie.

Tracey shoved Laura when she did not respond immediately and started to move past her. Laura grabs her darker hair and the fight suddenly explodes as the two angry rivals latch onto one another's hair. Heather Tom tries to separate the two but Gina Tognoni stops her and they get into one another's hair. Sharon is still standing off to the side when she is blindsided by Lauralee Bell and they start going at it.

Christel Khalil squared off with Emme Rylan, while Cait Fairbanks and Melissa Claire Egan squared off and latched onto one another's hair. Kelli Goss and Camryn Grimes lit into one another while Mishael Morgan and Melissa Ordway tied into one another. Vail Bloom stepped into the fray when she saw Christel throw Emme head first into the lockers and Vail went after Christel. Punches began flying as the stable lost control and tempers flared wildly.

Tracey and Laura were going at it hot and heavy, holding onto one another's hair while slamming slaps and punches into one another's faces and bodies. Heather was in a bit of trouble as Gina had twisted her off balance and Heather tripped over Emme and fell into a heap with Gina on top of her. Sharon and Lauralee were going at it full steam as well as the two heavyweight blonds attacked one another with a high pitched fever.

Cait and Melissa Claire held onto one another by the hair and were trying to throw one another off balance while Kelli and Camryn had thrown one another to the floor and were now twisting in a violent catfight. Mishael was all over Melissa Ordway as they twisted on the floor and Vail had gained a slight advantage over Christel. Within a few seconds all the fights had moved to the floor with bodies everywhere as the nasty battle was waged without any knowledge that by this time Michelle and the Boss had arrived and were now watching as the stable was beating one another with a vengeance.

Daniela and Katharine heard the wildness going on and came over to check it out but the Boss motioned for the two leaders not to interfere and allowed the battle to continue for another 5 minutes before it was obvious that the situation was not going to slow down. When motioned to settle things down, Katharine pulled Melissa Ordway off of Mishael after Mishael had covered up from Melissa who had gained the advantage as she was holding Mishael down by her hair and slapping the devil out of Miss Morgan.

Daniela caught Vail who was in a really nasty mood as she had Christel on her back and Dani got those two separated. The Boss and Michelle kept everything apart as they were separated. Heather meanwhile looked in trouble as she was on her back but Katharine was having problems getting her and Gina separated as Heather had her legs locked around Gina and would not let go. Daniela helped Katharine get them separated and apart.

They next concentrated on getting Cait and Melissa Claire separated and Melissa had Cait down and was doing some serious ground and pound on Cait until Katharine pulled Melissa off of Cait. Kelli and Camryn were just as hard to get separated from as Daniela could not get between the two as they had one another in headlocks and holding one another close by the hair. Katharine helped Daniela by subduing Camryn while Dani held Kelli down as Katharine pulled Camryn away though still trying to kick Kelli.

That left only Sharon and Lauralee going at it as well as Tracey and Laura. It wasn't hard to finally get Laura and Tracey separated as Laura had Tracey against the wall and both had nearly pulled one another's tops off. Katharine managed to get between the two hated rivals allowing Dani to pull Laura away. Tracey stormed off to the bathroom to gather herself while Michelle calmed Laura down. Lauralee had Sharon against the wall as well but the two gorgeous blondes were close to exhaustion allowing Dani and Katharine to get them separated.

Michelle angrily ordered the girls to get themselves together and meet in the conference room in one hour. Katharine and Daniela watched over the team as they showered and cooled off and got ready for the team meeting while The Boss took Tracey with him to have another long talk.

Boss: Okay Tracey what was all that about.

Tracey: I don't know Boss, you will have to ask Laura, she started this.

Boss: No I'm asking you Laura is next but we had this conversation before.

Tracey frustrated and near tears responded

Tracey: Boss here it is from the start. Kylie calls me and tells me that Michelle has been taken care of and it's up to me to make the decision and trade for Hunter. I talked to Hunter and she agreed and said she was ready to leave this stable and the reason she gave me was her issues with Ashley Benson. I don't know what that is all about but we both knew that she had issues with Ashley. That thought was what she told me. I call Kylie back and we discuss what we would get in return. I really like the deal, Katherine McNamara is a really talented and impressive fighter. She will work well for whichever of us takes control of her. If I understand right, The Lost Wildcats will receive her and we get some money.

Michelle Stafford: Who attacked me. What did Kylie say about that?

Tracey: She didn't say and I didn't ask. I just figured that Kylie heard that maybe you were out of town and couldn't be reached. Anyway, We talked through the deal with Hunter and Miss McNamara and all were in agreement thus the trade was finalized. I am sorry this happened to you Michelle, in my defense Kylie seemed to know more than me about the situation and since I knew Hunter wanted to be a Barbie I made the decision for you.

Boss: Well all of that is under the bridge. I hope that you understand that Michelle is the stable's leader and not you.

Tracey: I know and I have backed Michelle up whenever I could and I still think that I did the right thing for all of us.

Michelle: Well that is debatable and we will see who we bring in to replace Hunter, The Boss knows the details about that.

Tracey: I hope so. Look Tracey I wasn't trying to undermine your authority but as you saw I did receive all the blame. That is all on me and I will accept any punishment that you see fit.

Boss: That is now behind us. Let's look to the future. Michelle and I will talk after we discuss things with Miss Wright. For now you are back on the team, Your punishment has been paid. But warning you, I want no more issues like this. Michelle, go find Laura and then get the team together for a short meeting. Tracey you are free to go but stay loose for the meeting and stay away from Laura until I have talked to her. Both ladies leave and 10 minutes later Laura Wright is brought in.

Laura Wright: You wanted to see me Boss

Boss: Take a seat Laura. Tell me what this was all about.

Laura: Well for starters, Tracey and I don't seem to think alike on this matter. I think that she was trying to take back control of our stable.

Boss: So you took it upon yourself to do something about it.

Laura: You could say that, I think this team was splintered when Tracey made this trade. Hunter was just the final straw. In the end Tracey got what she deserved: a good old fashioned beating.

Boss: Okay but now I have gotten Tracey's side of this story and though she didn't make the right decision without talking to me or Michelle, She was looking out for the team.

Laura: If you think so. What happens when she does this again?

Boss: We have talked this with her and she claims that she did not know what happened to Michelle and just thought she was making a decision that would help the team.

Laura: Okay but like I said, what about the future? Can she hold her tongue and not do something like this again.

Boss: I have warned her and she has told me that it will not happen again. Okay. Now for what happened here earlier. I don't want anything like this to happen again. I brought you in here to figure this out. What will it take to get this team back together without another brawl.

Laura: I think that all of us were just real emotional and it got out of hand. On my part I won't allow Tracey to get under my skin again. I can't speak for others.

Boss: Fine. Then let's go and get the team together. I want this over and concentrate on our next event.

The Boss and Laura head to the conference room where Michelle has been talking with the rest of the team.

Michelle: Okay Boss I have talked with the team and none of them know exactly what happened to me so I think that we need to look more into Barbie's involvement.

Boss: Okay so this is under the bridge then. This brawl was uncalled for but if you all have come to an understanding then let's look to the future. I want to keep everything together.

Michelle: That's what we all want. If Laura is in agreement, then we are all ready to continue to work together and talk through our differences.

Boss: I agree and Laura and I have talked. I think we are all now in agreement so let's move on and put this behind us. Michelle I will have Katharine and Daniela look into any Barbie involvement and we will keep in contact. Okay Let's go and get some rest and let the other two teams get their work in. We will see you all in a couple of days at our next scheduled media event. Until then talk to no one about this or any team business. I will take care of the media and we can move on. See you all then.
