Agenda

Updates: AERA Annual Meeting and Fireside Chats

Division B Presentation

Division K Presentation

AERA Annual Meeting

- Record number of submissions, increased number of roundtables
- All VPs are aware of this change
- No changes to fireside chats

Fireside Chats

- Thank you for submissions
- Questions were about logistics
- Please do not make any drastic changes without checking with your VPs
- Suggestions from Desa and Rachel - making sure that titles are ethical and aligned with Vanessa Siddle-Walker's theme
- Make fireside chats appealing to graduate students
- Desa will go through your comments to her comments
- Finalize your guest speakers and send back to Desa
- VPs not able to submit their own fireside chats - time allocated through AERA GSC
- If VP pushes back, please have them e-mail Desa
- Submission need to be turned in by deadline
- Make sure you are updating your hours and requests, to avoid any scheduling conflicts

Student Social

- We are on hold, plans not finalized because Felice is traveling
- Will update after next week's meeting

CCM

- If you have not booked your travel yet, it is most likely too late, but please email Desa
- More updates to come in the October 2019 meeting

Letters for Funding

- Letter for funding will be sent to your department heads
- Email will be sent from Nathan asking for our department to provide funding for the AERA Annual Meeting, please complete

Membership Email Error

- Disregard erroneous email sent out telling you that you were not a member

Newsletter Updates

- Please email Aly and Amber directly with any updates from your division by Wednesday, September 25, 2019
- We would like to start featuring spotlights in the newsletter
- The organization sees the newsletter - good opportunity

Questions from Courtney (Division A) - clarification on funding letter, comes from AERA and sent to our department. A letter confirming your role and reminding the department that you get some form of stipend, but not enough to cover your travel and asking them for funding.

Division B Curriculum Studies Overview: Alankrita, Sr. Division Representative

- Greater focus on social media promotions to engage with graduate students
- Jr. Rep. post resources on social media for graduate students
- Planning fireside chat, attempted to invite the author of "The Professor is In"
- More focus towards
- Organize a pre-conference seminar, provides $200 to come before the annual meeting starts for more graduate students to take advantage of those opportunity

Division K Overview, Teaching and Teacher Education, Danielle and Lindsay

- Fireside Chat (Danielle): based on the theme of annual meeting
- Inviting graduate students from across division
- Invitees: Bill Penuel, Uni. of Colorado, Sabrina Z., Dean of School of Education Bettina Love, University of Georgia, waiting on Danny Martinez, UC Davis
- Ask for Panelist: their success with working for the community and collaboration; who do you partner with, etc.

Lindsay

Division K president (former) saw graduate students as a fundamental part of AERA, she grew the division, there are 15 members broken into committees

- 38 campus liaisons across 21 universities, providing CV writing workshops, how to AERA with a Division K spin

Campus Representatives

- Felice is interested in this program, but was not spearheaded this year because it would require a 2-person team like the newsletter

Next Month

- Email Rachel and Desa if you have any questions about the fireside chat
- The due date is this week
- October meeting next month, Division C and Division J
