How to access speech-to-text / text-to-speech options on your Chromebook.	Here is a teacher friend of mine who made a short video describing how to access both speech-to-text and text-to-speech on your Chromebooks. This may not be necessary, as we have used these in the classroom before.
What is Go Guardian Chat?	This video is meant for teachers, but it briefly describes how to use Go Guardian Chat. Mr. Lambert can be reached through Go Guardian Chat on school days between 9-12:00 and 1-3:00. We have used it all year, so students should already be familiar with it.
