Mother Fined For Son's Absences.

An Ipswich mother, who allowed her son to go on holiday during school term, has been fined J400 after her son repeatedly refused to go to school. The 36-year-old mother, who can not be named for legal reasons, appeared before South East Suffolk Magistrates Court yesterday where magistrates heard her 14-year-old son was currently on holiday in Spain.

She told the court: «He just does not like going to school. Although he is getting better now and seems to be enjoying it.» The boy has had 145 unauthorized absences between October 15 last year and March 22 this year. His absences were blamed on a late-night lifestyle. The mother has been attending parenting classes voluntarily and told the court that she thought they were helping her. Out of the last eight school sessions — there are two a day — he has attended five. Chairman of the bench David Coe asked her if she thought she could get her son to school in future.»Yes I think I can with some help,» she said.

She told the court that he was on holiday during the time other pupils were doing work experience because he had not been given a place. On sentencing Mr Coe said: «He is not in school and then he disappears on holiday. We would expect the local authority to bring this back to court quickly if there are further problems.» She was fined J400 and ordered to pay J50. Yesterday's case is the second to be dealt with by south east Suffolk magistrates recently. Last month a 37-year-old was fined J50 after her son had attended just 16 out of 182 sessions. And the cases follow national concern after Oxfordshire mother Patricia Amos was jailed for allowing her children to miss school. She was originally sentenced to 60 days' jail, but this was reduced on appeal.

Урок № 25. Тема: Автомобіль в моєму житті

Домашнє завдання: користуючись текстом, напишіть власну розповідь про те, яку роль відіграє автомобіль у вашому житті.

Nowadays, many people have their own cars. One of the most notable advantages of owning cars is that the car owners receive convenience and comfort. I live in the countryside, and my community has only one train per an hour. That was very inconvenient for me. My life, however, totally became convenient after I had my own car. The car enables me to go anywhere and anytime. The car also gave me comfort because I do not have to face anybody while driving. Driving a car relaxes me more than taking public transport.

On the other hand, there are two considerable disadvantages in owning cars. The first drawback is air pollution. Automobiles emit exhaust that contains carbon dioxide. According to recent research conducted by the Japanese government, 20 percent of all the amount of carbon dioxide emitted in 2010 was made up by automobiles. Now that there are a great number of cars in Japan, the amount of emitted carbon dioxide must be enormous.

The second disadvantage is a car accident. In recent years, traffic accidents have increased significantly in Japan. There are many cases where drivers cause a car accident by drinking alcohol. What is worse, some of the drivers killed passengers. Another research conducted by the Japanese police department showed that more than one thousand traffic deaths happened in 2010. We have to take into consideration our safety when driving cars. In conclusion, automobiles give us convenience and comfort whereas they are the causes of air pollution. In addition, they have a risk of fatal accidents.
