

Expectation from User

- Make maximum use of all resources and services of the Library.
- Take care of all Library materials, including books, journals, computers and other equipment.
- To treat other users and library staff with respect and courtesy, and to behave in a considerate and appropriate manner.
- Return books on time so that other users have the chance to read them.
- Respect the library environment and keep noise to a minimum at all times.
- Help keep the Library premises clean and organized.
- Take responsibility for complying with copyright law when using any of the Library's resources, whether printed or electronic.
- Become active user for improving library collections and services by providing continuous feedback to us.
- Make use of mobile phones and other gadgets without causing disturbance to other users and library environment.