

Vx3art's Commission Rules:

General Info:

1. I allow up to 3 major changes in the sketch phase, after the sketch is complete, I will no longer make any major changes to the piece.
2. Please send as many references as possible, and try to explain everything as thorough as possible.
3. Since my commissions are mostly based around character illustrations, I'd be really thankful if for original characters, you would have a reference sheet. If you don't, please follow the 2nd rule.

Payment:

1. These commissions are paid for via PayPal.
2. Payment is in EUR, but if you want to know the price in your currency, I can check that for you.
3. I ask for half of the payment upfront, and then the other half after it's been completed. I will not start work until I have the first half of the money.
4. I will not do a refund after the piece has been completed.
5. I will not give you the full-res piece until the commission is paid for.

Process:

1. I will try my best to finish the piece in 1-3 weeks, if I have sudden schedule changes, you will be informed.
2. Please don't rush me if my estimated time is not nearing its end yet, and don't expect me to finish the next day after you have ordered a commission.

Things to keep in mind:

1. These commissions are for personal use only. Please don't contact me for commercial use, and please don't resell my art.
2. The art still belongs to me, meaning that you can't claim that you drew it. You are free to do whatever you want to it, post it anywhere you want and credit to me is appreciated.
3. I have the right to deny a commission.
4. I have the right to not draw something; even if it wasn't stated before that I would not draw it.

These rules are always up to discussion, and any can be changed if certain things are taken into consideration.
