

JCN (Dr. Carter Numbers)

- Cheetah Man [JCN-01]
  - A robot originally built as a child-sitting bot, upgraded to be the head of a powerplant years later after he disappeared. Prone to having breakdowns, he is very shy and often hides from his mistakes.
  - "I don't want to be a burden but..."
    - Likes: Learning
    - Dislikes: Loud voices, fire
    - Good Point: Stubborn
    - Bad Point: Nervous wreck
- Lynx Woman [JCN-02]
  - A robot created for demolition and construction, she is a keen worker and often works overtime. She frequently gets into trouble when her temper gets the better of her.
  - "Hey, wanna watch me level this building?"
    - Likes: Demolition, small animals
    - Dislikes: Not working
    - Good Point: Hard worker
    - Bad Point: Short fuse
- Mystic Woman [JCN-03]
  - Built as an entertainment bot for all ages, Mystic is someone who loves nothing more than to bring smiles to others who need it most. Often ignores their energy and passes out.
  - "Chin up darling, you're doing well!"
    - Likes: Kids, entertaining
    - Dislikes: Conflict
    - Good Point: Pacifist
    - Bad Point: Self loathing
- Hacker Man [JCN-04]
  - A robot built as a hacker and observation bot, this bird-based robot master is skilled in being undetected and leaving no trace of himself. He has many regrets from the purpose of his building and is trying his best to amend them.
  - "I'm sorry."
    - Likes: Technology
    - Dislikes: Receiving attention, being seen
    - Good Point: Intelligent
    - Bad Point: Secretive

- Harpy Woman [JCN-05]
  - It is unknown what this robot's purpose was, only that her appearance is based on that of a magpie coloured harpy and her build was not completed by Carter herself. She often hides from others and is very prone to panicking from the slightest instance of danger.
  - "...."
    - Likes: Quiet, animals
    - Dislikes: Confrontation, crowds
    - Good Point: Gentle
    - Bad Point: Paranoid
