

Hello,

This is a quick platform I wanted to post before I accept nomination to become Head Moderator. With no successful candidates from the first round and me rejecting my nomination then, I'll be accepting my current nomination in the second round.

I want to keep this brief and relatively simple. Clear goals will be more useful than a full manifesto, I feel.

Fundamentally I'd like to run on a position of community engagement. At this time, further consultation is going to need to be conducted with members of the sim. There is a burgeoning gap between community expectations and outcomes from moderators. I'd like to try address that. Either this is through a formal process or a more casual open door policy for members to raise their grievances - either way, I think it'll be productive and I intend on working with the rest of the moderator team to reach this.

I want to run on this position as I can admit that I do not get everything right always, though I am willing to admit that and address concerns on decisions I may make. I extend that assumption to everyone, and I hope that it may be reciprocated if I am elected to this position.

I have been in my current position of Parliamentary Moderator for a short amount of time, so I won't appeal to any sort of experience or wisdom, as I don't have much in this respect. I can only offer that I will conduct myself with integrity, and will always try act in the best interests of the sim and it's members.

Many thanks,

Perekai
