Oil! You haven't linked your FiveM account yet. You can do so in the Settings up top. By the way, you don't need to do so.

Welcome to FiveM!

Any signs of low FPS should be reported to the Performance Optimization Department.

This is FiveM, the past, present and future of GTA/RAGE modifications. If you are having any issues, please report them on our forums at forum.fivem.net. Future!

We wish you a lot of fun playing FiveM.

5 years ago today, the first commit enabling GTA V support in the CitizenFX framework was made.

Many perils and ownership changes later, the FiveM project is still going strong.

Thanks to everyone who's stood by the codebase and project in this timespan!
