

2025-2026 Final Exams at NHS - Info for Students

Summary: There will be a nine day summative assessment period at the end of the semester as outlined below. The first phase is dedicated to courses that offer assessments other than seated exams; the second phase is dedicated to courses that offer seated exams.

Phase 1: Summative Projects, Papers, Portfolios due (can be counted as 15% of S2 grade)

Wed 6/10 (Blue 1)	Thurs 6/11 (Red 2)	Fri 6/12 (Blue 2)	Mon 6/15 (Red 1)
-------------------	--------------------	-------------------	------------------

These days are all full school days with typical bell schedules. If your class has a seated exam, your classes will be focusing on review and preparation for your final exam. Your teachers may give small, check-in quizzes and assign work that is specifically geared toward final exam preparation.

Phase 2: Seated Exams (15% of S2 Grade)

Tues 6/16 B4, B3 Exams Early Release	Wed 6/17 B2, B1 Exams Early Release	Thurs 6/18 R4, R3 Exams Early Release	Mon 6/22 R2, R1 Exams Early Release	Tues 6/23 Make-ups: Optional for most students

Please note there is NO SCHOOL on Friday, June 19th.

During Phase 2:

- The school day starts at 7:30 for all students (juniors, this means you!)
- All days are early release - see schedule below
- Students must attend all class blocks, including study halls, unless dismissed by a parent/guardian
- Juniors with Priv who chose to stay in the building must remain in the Library.
- If your class does not have a seated exam, teachers may use class time to:
 - Conduct end of year wrap-up activities, reflections, or course surveys
 - Provide you with quiet study time to prepare for exams
