A note from Mr. Harris...

Parent-Teacher Conferences are Thursday and Friday this week. The online scheduler to make your appointments will close on Tuesday. To make these appointments, go to “About Us” on our school website and scroll down to Parent-Teacher Conferences. It will give you instructions from there. Our password is “wolfcubs”. Thanks to all those who have made their appointments. After Tuesday, if you haven’t made your own appointment yet, your student’s teacher will contact you to help you make one.

There will be a Bookfair in the library during our conferences.

On Thursday, students will be released from school at 1:00 p.m. Please be prepared for that. Students will be served lunch before they go. Friday will be a no-school day for the students as we finish up our conferences.

Thanks to students, parents, and the PTO for all their hard work and preparation for the school musical. Performances will be on Friday and Saturday. We look forward to seeing everyone perform!

This week is National School Breakfast Week. Here’s a note from the lunchroom about it:

March 2-6, don’t sleep in late,
Breakfast at school is super great!
The Quest for Breakfast is here—oh boy!
Eat in the morning for prizes and joy!
Lucky Trays could be YOUR big win,
Chicken Nugget Buddy—grin, grin, grin!
Eat, laugh, and start your day just right,
Breakfast at school is a winning bite!

Thanks,
Mr. Harris
