Chapter I

POLICIES ON VAT AND PERSONAL INCOME TAX INCURRED BY RESIDENTS DOING BUSINESS

Article 1. Taxpayers

1. Taxpayers mentioned in Chapter I of this Circular are residents including individuals, groups of individuals, and households who manufacture and/or trade in goods, services in any field and sector prescribed by law (hereinafter referred to as businessperson or businesspeople). The business fields and sectors also include:

- a) Independent practice in the fields and sectors that are permitted in the practising certificate or license as prescribed by law.
- b) Acting as a lottery, insurance, multi-level marketing agent who directly signs a contract with the lottery company, insurer, or multi-level marketing company.
- c) Business cooperation with other organizations.
- d) Agriculture, forestry, salt production, aquaculture activities that do not satisfy conditions for tax exemption in Point e Clause 1 Article 3 of Circular No. 111/2013/TT-BTC dated August 15, 2013 of the Ministry of Finance.

2. Taxpayers mentioned in Clause 1 of this Article do not include businesspeople whose revenues are VND 100 million/year or lower.

Article 2. Tax calculation methods applied by businesspeople paying flat tax

1. Applied principles:

a) Businesspeople who pay flat tax (hereinafter referred to as payers of flat tax) are those who earn revenue from trading in goods/services in any field and sector prescribed by law, except for the businesspeople mentioned in Article 3, Article 4, and Article 5 of this Circular.

b) If the revenue subject to personal income tax (PIT) earned by the businessperson who pays flat tax in the year is VND 100 million/year or lower, the person shall not pay VAT and PIT.

If the revenue subject to PIT earned by a flat tax payer who does not do business for the whole year (less than 12 months of a calendar year) is VND 100 million per year or lower, such person shall not pay VAT and PIT. Persons who do not do business for the whole year include persons who are new to business; persons doing seasonal business; persons who suspend/shut down their business. The actual revenue for calculating tax payable in the year is the revenue earned during the months in which they actually do business. If a payer of flat tax who does not do business for the whole year has received a tax notice from the tax authority, the flat tax shall be reduced according to the months in which the business is suspended or shut down.

Example 1: Mr. A starts his business from April 2015 and expects to earn a revenue of VND 90 million after 09 months of business (averagely VND 10 million/month). The corresponding revenue of a year (12 months) is VND 120 million (> VND 100 million). In this case, Mr. A has to pay VAT and PIT on the actual revenue earned from April 2015, which is VND 90 million.

Example 2: Ms. B has received a tax notice of 2015 from the tax authority. In October 2015, Ms. B suspends/shuts down her business. In this case, she will receive a reduction in flat tax corresponding to the last 03 months of 2015.

c) Businesspeople who do business as a group or household and earns a revenue of VND 100 million/year or lower shall not pay VAT and PIT. It is considered that the revenue is earned by only 01 representative of the group or household in the tax year.

Example 3. Household C is established by a group of 04 persons. In 2015, household C has a revenue of VND 180 million from business (>VND 100 million). Household C has to pay VAT and PIT on the total revenue of VND 180 million.

d) Businesspeople who are not residents but have permanent business premises in Vietnam shall declare tax as if those who are residents.

2. Basis for tax calculation

The basis for tax calculation by a payer of flat tax is the taxable revenue and tax rate.

a) Taxable revenue

a.1) Revenue subject to VAT and PIT means the tax-inclusive revenue (if taxable) from the sale of goods, payment for processing, commission, provision of services earned in the tax period from the business (hereinafter referred to as taxable revenue).

If the flat tax payer uses invoices of the tax authority, the taxable revenue is based on the flat revenue and revenue on the invoice.

a.2) In case a businessperson fails to determine the flat revenue or the flat revenue is not practical, the tax authority is entitled to impose a flat revenue in accordance with regulations of law on tax administration.

b) Tax rates

b.1) Tax rates include VAT rate and PIT rate and vary according to the business line as follows:

- Distribution, provision of goods shall incur 1% VAT and 0.5% PIT.
- Service provisions and construction exclusive of building materials shall incur 5% VAT and 2% PIT.
- Manufacture, transport, provision of services associated with goods, construction inclusive of building materials shall incur 3% VAT and 1.5% PIT.
- Other business lines shall incur 2% VAT and 1% PIT.

b.2) The detailed list of business lines and corresponding tax rates is provided in Appendix 01 enclosed herewith.

b.3) The businessperson who involves in multiple business lines shall declare and calculate tax according to the rates applied to each of the business lines. If such businessperson is not able to separate revenue from each business line or it is not practical, the tax authority is entitled to impose a flat revenue upon each of the business line in accordance with regulations of law on tax administration.

c) Determination of tax payable

VAT payable	=	Revenue subject to VAT	x	VAT rate
PIT payable	=	Revenue subject to PIT	x	PIT rate

Where:

- Revenue subject to VAT and revenue subject to PIT are prescribed in Point a and Point b.3 Clause 2 of this Article.

- VAT rate and PIT rate are prescribed in Point b Clause 2 of this Article.

d) Time for determination of taxable revenue

d.1) Flat revenue shall be determined during the period from November 20 to December 15 of the year preceding the tax year.

d.2) If a businessperson is new to business (who does not do business from the beginning of the year) or changes the business scale in the year, the flat revenue of the year shall be determined within 10 days from the beginning date or the changing date.

d.3) Variable revenue (according to invoices) shall be determined at the time prescribed in Point d Clause 2 Article 3 of this Circular.

Article 3. Tax calculation methods applied by businesspeople paying tax every time it is incurred

1. Applied principles:

a) Businesspeople paying tax every time it is incurred include: residents who earn revenue outside Vietnam's territory; persons who do casual business and do not have permanent business premises; persons who engages in business cooperation with other organizations in a way that their personal revenues can be determined.

Depending on the characteristics of the business line, persons doing casual business may decide to declare flat tax as prescribed in Clause 2 of this Circular or declare tax whenever it is incurred as prescribed in this Article.

Permanent business premises are the places where businesspeople carry on their business such as: transaction offices, stores, shops, workshops, warehouses, terminals, depots, etc.

b) If the total revenue from business in the calendar year earned by a businessperson who pays tax whenever it is incurred is VND 100 million or lower, such businessperson shall not pay VAT and PIT.

Example 4: In 2015, Mr. C earns a revenue of VND 40 million from a contract with company X and VND 50 million from a contract with company Y. The total value of two contracts in the year is VND 90 million (< VND 100 million). In this case, Mr. C does not have to pay VAT and personal income tax on the revenue earned from these two contracts. In this case, Mr. C does not have to pay VAT and personal income tax on the revenue earned from these two contracts, which increases the total value of 03 contracts in the year to VND 110 million (> VND 100 million), Mr. C has to pay VAT and PIT on the revenue of VND 110 million from 03 contracts.

2. Basis for tax calculation

The basis for tax calculation by a businessperson who pays tax whenever it is incurred is the taxable revenue and tax rate.

a) Taxable revenue

a.1) Taxable revenue is the tax-inclusive revenue (if taxable) from the sale of goods, payment for processing, commission, provision of services according to the contract, including subsidies, surcharges, damages, fines for breach of contract (with regard to revenue subject to PIT) earned by the businessperson, whether such amounts have been collected or not. Taxable revenue in some cases:

a.1.1) Taxable revenue from selling goods by instalments is determined according to the lump-sum selling prices of goods exclusive of interest on deferred payment;

a.1.2) Taxable revenue from goods/services used for exchange or gifting is determined according to selling prices of the same or similar kind goods/services at the time of exchange or gifting;

a.1.3) Taxable revenue for goods processing is the revenue for the processing including wages, payment for fuel, machines, ancillary materials, and other costs serving the processing of goods; a.1.4) Taxable revenue from transport is the total revenue from the charges for transport of passengers, cargo, and luggage earned in the tax period;

a.1.5) Taxable revenue from construction and installation is the value of the works, work items, or parts that are accepted, transferred, or completed in the calendar year. Revenue from construction and installation exclusive of building materials, machinery and equipment, the taxable revenue does not include the value of building materials, machinery and equipment.

b) Tax rate

VAT rate and PIT rate applied to businesspeople who pay tax whenever it is incurred are the same as that applied to flat tax payers prescribed in Point b Clause 2 Article 2 of this Circular.

c) Determination of tax payable

$$\text{VAT payable} = \text{Revenue subject to VAT} \times \text{VAT rate}$$

$$\text{PIT payable} = \text{Revenue subject to PIT} \times \text{PIT rate}$$

Where:

- Revenue subject to VAT and revenue subject to PIT are prescribed in Point a Clause 2 of this Article.

- VAT rate and PIT rate are prescribed in Point b Clause 2 of this Article.

d) Time for determination of taxable revenue

- For goods sale, it is the time of transfer of the right to own or rights to use the goods, or the time of issuing the sale invoice if it is issued before the transfer of the right to own or rights to use the goods.

- For transport and service provision, it is the time of completion of provision of services for the buyer or the time of issuing the service provision invoice if it is issued before the completion of service provision.

- For construction and installation, it is the time of acceptance and transfer of the completed works, work items, or parts.

Article 4. Tax accounting method applied by persons leasing property

1. Applied principles:

a) Persons leasing property (hereinafter referred to as lessors) are those who earn revenue from the lease of their property, including: housing, premises, stores, workshops, warehouses, depots exclusive of accommodation services; lease of means of transport, machinery and equipment without operators; lease of other property without associated services.

Accommodation services not included in property lease mentioned in this point include: provision of short-term lodging establishments for tourists and other guests; provision of long-term lodging establishments for students, workers and the like; provision of lodging establishments together with food and drink services and/or entertainments. Accommodation services do not include: long-term provision of lodging establishments as if permanent establishments such as monthly or annual lease of apartments, which are classified as real estate activities according to Vietnam's System of Business lines.

b) If the total revenue from lease contracts earned in the calendar year is VND 100 million or lower, the lessor shall not pay VAT and PIT. If the lessee pays a lump-sum of rent in advance for many years, the taxpayer shall not pay VAT and PIT if the annual revenue, which equals (=) lump-sum revenue divided by (:) the number years, is VND 100 million or lower.

Example 5: Ms. C signs a housing lease contract for 02 years from October 2015 to the end of September 2015 for a monthly rent of VND 10 million. A lump-sum of rent is paid for 02 years. Taxable revenue of Ms. C and tax payable on the lump-sum from housing lease is determined as follows:

In 2015, Ms. C leases out her house for 03 months (from October to December) and earns a revenue of: 03 months x VND 10 million = VND 30 million (< VND 100 million). Thus, Ms. C does not have to pay VAT and PIT on the house rent in 2015.

In 2016, Ms. C leases out her house for 12 months (from January to December) and earns a revenue of: 12 months x VND 10 million = VND 120 million (> VND 100 million). Thus, Ms. C has to pay VAT and PIT on the house rent in 2015.

In 2017, Ms. C leases out her house for 09 months (from January to September) and earns a revenue of: 09 months x VND 10 million = VND 90 million (< VND 100 million). Thus, Ms. C does not have to pay VAT and PIT on the house rent in 2017.

After determining annual taxable revenue, Ms. C declares tax on the lump-sum of VND 180 million. Taxable revenue is VND 120 million and tax payable for the whole contract is VND 12 million (VND 120 million x (5% + 5%)).

c) Businesspeople who have a co-ownership of a piece of property for lease and earn a revenue of VND 100 million/year or lower shall not pay VAT and personal income tax. It is considered that the revenue is earned by only 01 representative of the group or household in the tax year.

Example 6: A and B are two people who have a co-ownership of a piece of property. In 2015, they agree to leases it out for VND 180 million/year, which is higher than VND 100 million/year. A is the representative who fulfills tax obligations. In this case, A has to pay VAT and PIT on the lease of such property on the revenue of VND 180 million.

2. Basis for tax calculation

The basis for tax calculation by a property lessor is the taxable revenue and tax rate.

a) Taxable revenue

Taxable revenue from property lease is determined as follows:

a.1) Revenue subject to VAT from property lease is the tax-inclusive revenue (if taxable) from rents periodically paid by the lessee under the lease contract and other revenues exclusive of fines and damages received by the lessor under the lease contract.

a.2) Revenue subject to PIT from property lease is the tax-inclusive revenue (if taxable) from rents periodically paid by the lessee under the lease contract and other revenues including fines and damages received by the lessor under the lease contract.

a.3) In case the lessee advances a lump sum for multiple years, the revenue subject to VAT and PIT shall be determined according to the lump sum.

b) Tax rate

- VAT rate on property lease is 5%

- PIT rate on property lease is 5%

c) Determination of tax payable

VAT payable	=	Revenue subject to VAT	x	5% VAT
PIT payable	=	Revenue subject to PIT	x	5% PIT

Where:

- Revenue subject to VAT and revenue subject to PIT are prescribed in Point a Clause 2 of this Article.

- VAT rate and PIT rate are prescribed in Point b Clause 2 of this Article.

d) Time for determination of taxable revenue

Time for determination of taxable revenue is the beginning date of each payment term written on the lease contract.

Article 5. Tax calculation method applied by persons who directly sign lottery, insurance, multi-level marketing agent contracts

1. Applied principles:

b) The person who directly signs the lottery, insurance, or multi-level marketing agent contract is the person who directly signs an agent contract with the lottery company, insurer, or multi-level marketing company to sell goods/services at prices fixed by the company and receive commission (hereinafter referred to as agent).

b) If the total commission, bonuses in any shape or form, subsidies and other revenues received by the agent in the year is VND 100 million or lower, the person shall not pay PIT.

Example 7. Mr. D directly signs a contract with lottery company X to act as a level I agent of company X. In 2015, Mr. D receives a total commission of VND 230 million (> VND 100 million) In this case, Mr. D has to pay tax on the revenue of VND 230 million from lottery agent activities.

2. Basis for tax calculation

The basis for tax calculation by a person who acts as a lottery, insurance, or multi-level marketing agent is the taxable revenue and tax rate.

a) Taxable revenue

Taxable revenue is the tax-inclusive revenue (if taxable) from the commission, bonuses in any shape or form, subsidies, and other revenues received by the person from the lottery company, insurer, or multi-level marketing company (hereinafter referred to as commission).

b) PIT rate

Rate of PIT incurred by lottery agents, insurance agents, and multi-level marketing agents is 5%.

c) Determination of tax payable

$$\text{PIT payable} = \text{Revenue subject to PIT} \times 5\% \text{ PIT}$$

Where:

- Revenue subject to PIT is prescribed in Point a Clause 2 of this Article.
- PIT rate is prescribed in Point b Clause 2 of this Article.

d) Time for determination of taxable revenue

Time for determination of taxable revenue is the time the lottery company, insurer, or multi-level marketing company pays commission to the person.

Chapter II

ADMINISTRATION OF VAT AND PIT INCURRED BY BUSINESSPEOPLE

Article 6. Tax declaration by businesspersons paying flat tax

1. Tax declaration principles:

- a) Persons who pay flat tax shall declare tax once per year at the Sub-departments of taxation of the district where their business premises are located and are not required to make annual tax statements.
- b) Flat tax payers using invoices of tax authorities shall declare and pay taxes on revenues on the invoices quarterly in addition to the flat revenue.
- c) In case a businessperson engages in business cooperation with an organization using property under his/her personal ownership but is not able to determine revenue from business, he/she may authorize the organization to declare and pay flat tax on his/her behalf. The organization shall declare and pay tax on behalf of the person at its supervisory tax authority.

2. Tax declaration documents:

From November 20 to December 05 every year, the tax authority shall hand out tax declarations of the next year to all businesspeople who pay flat tax.

- Flat tax payers using invoices of tax authorities shall declare their revenues according to the invoices in form No. 01/BC-SDHĐ-CNKD enclosed herewith. They are not required to make and submit the invoice use report using the form enclosed with Circular No. 39/2014/TT-BTC dated March 31, 2014 of the Ministry of Finance.

- In case a businessperson engages in business cooperation with an organization and authorizes it to declare and pay tax on his/her behalf, the organization shall use form No. 01/CNKD and form No. 01-1/BK-CNKD enclosed where with and submit a photocopy of the business cooperation contract (for the first time of tax declaration of the contract).

3. Deadline for submitting tax declarations:

- Flat tax payers shall submit tax declarations by December 15 of the year preceding the tax year.

- Flat tax payers who are new to business or changes their business lines or scale of business in the year shall submit tax declarations within 10 days from the beginning date or changing date.

- Flat tax payer using invoices of the tax authorities shall submit tax declarations by the 30th day of the quarter succeeding the quarter in which tax is incurred.

4. Determination of flat tax and revenue

a) Flat revenue of a flat tax payer shall remain unchanged for 01 year.

b) Flat tax payers shall determine the flat revenue themselves as the basis for determining the tax payable on form No. 01/CNKD enclosed herewith. If the businessperson is not able to determine the flat revenue, fails to submit the tax declaration, or the flat revenue determined is not practical, the tax authority is entitled to impose a flat revenue in accordance with regulations of law on tax administration.

According to tax declarations submitted by businesspeople and database of tax authorities including: integrated information system of tax authorities; verification and survey results; tax inspection results (if any), tax authorities shall determine flat revenue and flat tax in order to conduct a public enquiry and consult with Tax Advisory Council. This is the basis for Provincial Departments of Taxation to direct and review the making of ... of each sub-department of Taxation of districts.

c) Every flat tax payer who makes changes to their business (business lines, scale, location, etc.) in the year must register the changes in order for tax authorities to re-calculate the flat revenue, flat tax, and other information about the tax payer that is applied to the rest of the tax year. If the tax authority, through inspection, finds that the taxpayer does not make changes to his/her business but flat revenue varies by 50% or more, the tax authority shall only recalculate the flat revenue which is applied to the rest of the tax year. If the business lines are changed, adjustments shall be made accordingly.

5. First public enquiry

The tax authority shall conduct the first public enquiry to seek opinions about flat revenues and flat tax by posting documents publicly. Documents to be posted include: A list businesspeople exempt from VAT and/or PIT; a list of businesspeople who have to pay tax; and a list of businesspeople using invoices of tax authorities. The first public enquiry shall be conducted as follows:

a) The Sub-department of taxation of each district shall post the documents at the Sub-department of taxation, the People's Committee of the district, the gate or a suitable location of the People's Committees of communes within the district, offices of tax collector teams, management boards of markets, etc. in order to ensure convenient obtainment of information. The first public enquiry shall take place from December 20 to December 31 every year.

b) Sub-department of taxation of the district shall send posted documents to the People's Councils and Fatherland Front Agencies of the district and communes therein by December 20; specify the address and deadline for receiving feedbacks from the People's Council and Fatherland Front Agencies which is December 31.

c) By December 20 every year, Sub-departments of taxation shall send form No. 01/TBTDK-CNKD enclosed herewith (notice of estimated flat revenue and flat tax) together with form No. 01/CKTT-CNKD enclosed herewith (information sheet) to each businessperson, specify the address and time for the Sub-departments of taxation to receive feedbacks from businesspeople (if any) which is December 31. The notice may be sent directly to businesspeople (the receipt of the notice must be confirmed by taxpayers) or by tax authorities by registered mail.

Preliminary information sheets shall be sent to businesspeople within the district, including both businesspeople who have to pay tax and who do not. If the market, street, and neighborhood that has 200 businesspeople or fewer, the Sub-department of taxation shall print and hand out the information sheet to every businessperson. If the market, street, or neighborhood has more than 200 businesspeople, the Sub-department of taxation shall print and hand out the information sheet to not more than 200 businesspeople. If the market has more than 200 businesspeople, the Sub-department of taxation shall print and hand out the information sheet to each businessperson by their business lines.

d) The Sub-department of taxation has the responsibility to publish the posting location and address for receiving feedbacks (including phone numbers, fax numbers, address, email address).

e) Sub-departments of taxation shall collect and consolidate feedbacks from the people, taxpayers, the People's Councils and Fatherland Front Agencies of the district and communes therein, then consider changing the regulated entities, estimated flat revenues and flat taxes before consulting with Tax Advisory Council.

6. Consulting Tax Advisory Council

Each Sub-department of taxation shall consult Tax Advisory Council during the period from January 01 to January 10 every year about documents posted for the first public enquiry and the feedbacks. The minutes of consultation meeting with Tax Advisory Council must be made and bear the signatures of members of Tax Advisory Council. The minutes must specify opinions about changes of taxpayers, revenues, taxes of each businessperson which serve as the basis for making the tax register.

Tax Advisory Councils mentioned in this Circular Article Tax Advisory Councils established in accordance with regulations of law on tax administration.

7. Making and approving tax registers

According to tax declarations submitted by flat tax payers, investigation results, feedbacks obtain from the first public enquiry, minutes of meeting with Tax Advisory Council, and instructions from the Department of Taxation of the province, Sub-departments of taxation shall make and approve their tax registers by January 15.

Every month, depending on the business status of businesspeople (new businesses; suspension/shutdown of businesses; change of business scale or business lines, or change of tax calculation method, etc.) and changes of tax policies which affect the flat revenues and tax payable, the Sub-department of taxation shall adjust the tax register and re-inform flat tax payers of tax payable in the month or quarter.

8. Responsibility of Provincial Departments of Taxation for directing, supervising Sub-departments of taxation making their tax registers

Provincial Departments of Taxation have the responsibility to use tax administration database to analyze, assess, and direct the making of tax registers of Sub-departments of taxation as follows:

a) Departments of Taxation shall carry out annual inspections of at least 20% of Sub-departments of taxation in terms of adherence to regulations on risk management of determination of flat revenues and flat taxes. Inspection results given by Provincial Departments of Taxation are one of the bases for Sub-departments of taxation to make and approve tax registers of flat tax payers.

b) While performing its tasks, each Department of Taxation shall carry out periodic inspections of at least 10% of the Sub-departments of taxation in the first, second, and third quarter. The inspection results are the basis for estimating flat revenues and flat taxes of the next year. Flat revenue and flat tax applied to the rest of the tax year shall be adjusted in accordance with instructions of Point c Clause 4 Article 6 of this Circular.

c) Contents of the inspection by Provincial Department of Taxation mentioned in Clause 8 of this Article include: inspection of the administration database; comparison of information about business registration and tax registration; inspection of at least 15% of local businesspeople, 100% businesspeople classified as risky according to the criteria prescribed in Point c Clause 12 Article 6 of this Circular.”

9. Notice of tax payable and deadline for paying tax

11. Cases of flat tax reduction

a) The flat tax payer suspends/shuts down the business

The flat tax payer suspends/shuts down the business shall send a notification to the tax authority at least one day before suspension or shutdown. The tax authority shall determine the reduction in flat tax according to the duration of suspension or time of shutdown and issue a decision of tax reduction (form No. 03/MGTH) or notice of no tax reduction (form No. 04/MGTH enclosed with Circular No. 156/2013/TT-BTC). The reduction in flat tax is determined as follows:

If the business is suspended for the whole month (from the 1st to the last day of the month) or longer, the flat tax payable in the quarter shall be reduced by 1/3. If the business is suspended for two whole months or longer, the flat tax payable in the quarter shall be reduced by 2/3. If the business is suspended for the whole quarter, the flat tax payable in the quarter shall be cancelled. If the business is suspended for less than a month, flat tax payable in the month shall not be reduced.

Example 8: Household A has a flat tax payable in 2015 of VND 12 million, which means VND 3 million/quarter. Household A suspends its business continuously from February 20 to June 20. It will be considered that household A suspends its business in March, April, and May. So tax incurred by household A shall be reduced due to business suspension as follows: tax payable in the first quarter is reduced by 1/3 (VND 1 million), tax payable in the second quarter is reduced by 2/3 (VND 2 million).

b) The flat-tax payer suffers from a natural disaster, conflagration, accident, or fatal disease

The flat-tax payer that suffers from a natural disaster, conflagration, accident, or fatal disease shall submit an application for tax exemption or reduction (form No. 01/MGTH enclosed with Circular No. 156/2013/TT-BTC) to the tax authority within 90 days from the end of the calendar year.

The tax authority shall consider granting tax reduction according to the damage. Nevertheless, the reduction shall not exceed the amount of tax payable.

c) The flat-tax payer changes the tax declaration method

Any flat-tax payer that wishes to switch over to pay tax whenever it is incurred shall follow the procedures in Point a Clause 11 of this Article during the months in which flat tax is not paid.

12. Other regulations on tax administration of flat-tax payers

a) The businessperson who hires 10 employees or more must establish an enterprise as prescribed by the Law on Enterprises. If the businessperson has not established an enterprise, the tax authority shall impose flat tax. The tax authority shall make and send the list of such businesspeople to the business registration authority.

b) Tax authorities have the responsibility to issue taxpayer ID numbers (TIN) to businesspeople according to information on their tax declaration documents and follow tax administration procedures using the tax administration application of tax authorities.

c) Provincial Departments of Taxation shall establish a set of risk criteria applied to flat-tax payers by type and area of tax payers, such as:
