Announcement of Change in Motto

Change of the Former Motto to the New Motto

The official motto of the CSDF formerly was "Caecus Notitia", translating to "Blind Information". This was formerly used to symbolise the lack of information held by any enemies to the CSDF, and the use of the CSDF to gather information undetected. The new motto is to be "Exitus Acta Probat", translating from Latin to "The Outcome Justifies the Deeds" from the book "Heroides" by Ovid.
