

This document concerns Achi, the Server Manager of the Virulance Discord server. Achi was known as a chill and friendly member of the community. However, his behavior and decisions came into question after the banning of a senior staff member named Alex. Alex was accused of pedophilia and using the N-word. While such accusations are serious, there is no solid evidence supporting the pedophilia claim. The only confirmed issue is that Alex used the N-word, but this happened before he became a staff member. It appears that some members who disliked Alex personally may have used this old incident to push for his removal. As a result, Alex was banned without a fair investigation. This raises concerns about whether the decision was based on facts or personal bias.

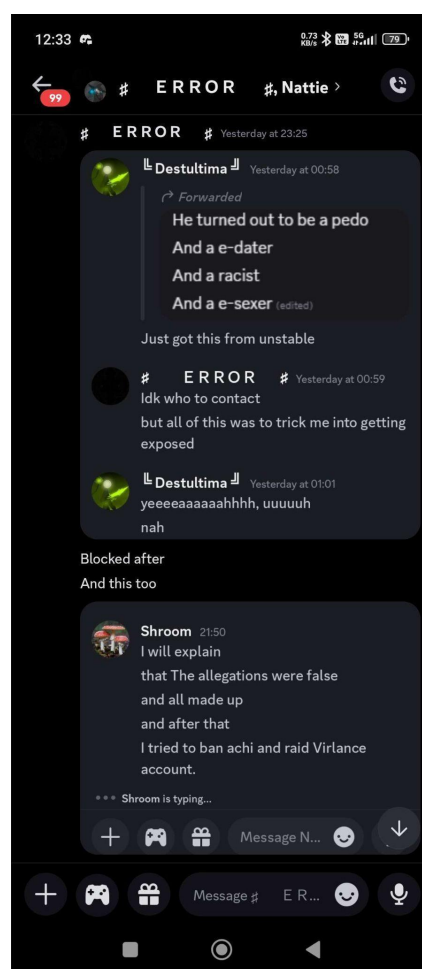

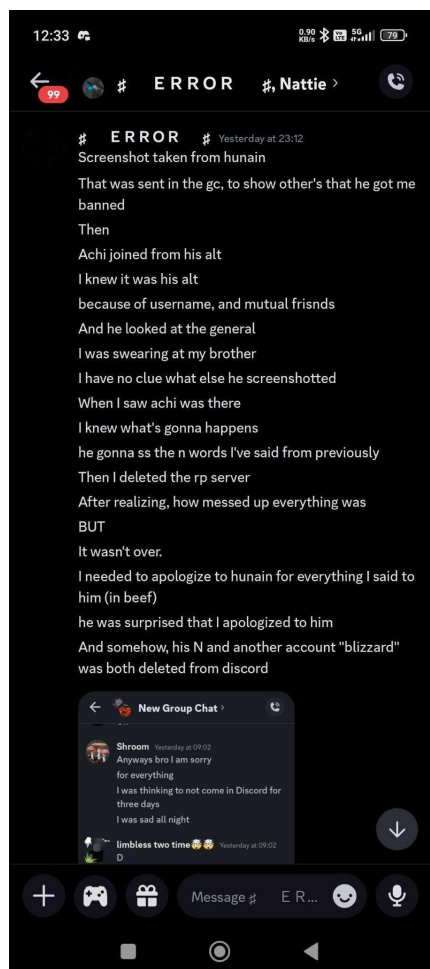

This section relates to a Discord server called the “Skibidi Roleplay Server,” which was originally created by Alex and his friends. Although the first version of the server was deleted, they later decided to recreate it. Unfortunately, things quickly got out of control. A user named “77_ig” began causing serious problems. He blackmailed Alex into giving him admin permissions by taking advantage of Alex's poor English and lack of experience. Under pressure, Alex gave in.

After gaining admin access, 77_ig engaged in inappropriate and explicit 18+ behavior in the server. Achi later joined the server using an alternate account and witnessed what was happening in the chat. During this time, Alex, feeling overwhelmed, was also seen swearing at his brother out of frustration. These events show a clear case of manipulation, abuse of trust, and poor handling due to Alex's inexperience and communication struggles.

Achi took screenshots of the server activity, after which Alex deleted the server to stop the situation from getting worse. Soon after, Alex was accused of being an "E-dater," "E-racist," and "E-sexer." However, these were unproven allegations with no solid evidence to support them, and appear to have been driven by personal bias rather than fact.

As shown in the screenshots, a user named “Shroom” confirmed that all the allegations against Alex were false. While it is true that Alex once used the N-word, this occurred before he fully understood its meaning. There is no evidence of ongoing or intentional misconduct beyond that isolated incident.

After observing the situation, Achi banned Alex from the server without giving him an opportunity to explain or defend himself. He also labeled Alex a pedophile without any verified evidence. This action was taken as the official response by the Virrance staff team, raising concerns about fairness and due process to what Alex did. As a result of the false accusations and sudden ban, Alex experienced a panic attack and entered a severe mental state. As of now, he has not fully recovered, and the incident has had a lasting impact on his well-being.

@unknown-role @unknown-role Hey, we don't really announce stuff like this but we felt like it was necessary.

One of the former Staff called Alex (@—★ Yuri ユリ —★) has been found out in doing some really horrible things such as: Harassment, Racism and Taking part and orchestrating Skibidi Toilet S###ual roleplays with minors along with other things. I heavily suggest you guys unfriend him and cut all ties with him.

Alex's case is not the only incident involving Achi's actions. Another member, Camzy—who held the role of Overseer in the Virrance server and was known to be one of Achi's close friends—was reported for using the N-word. Unlike Alex, Camzy was fully aware of the meaning behind the word. Members provided screenshots as evidence, and Achi proceeded to ban Camzy in response. This shows that similar action was taken despite personal ties, and there is documented proof of the offense.

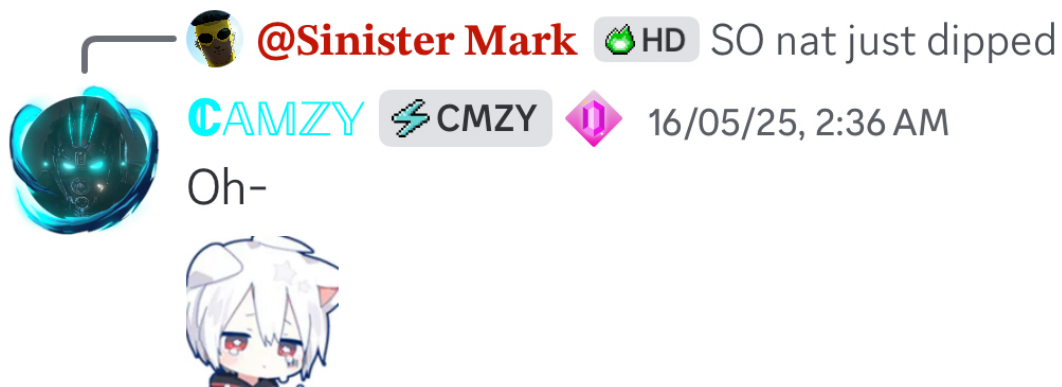

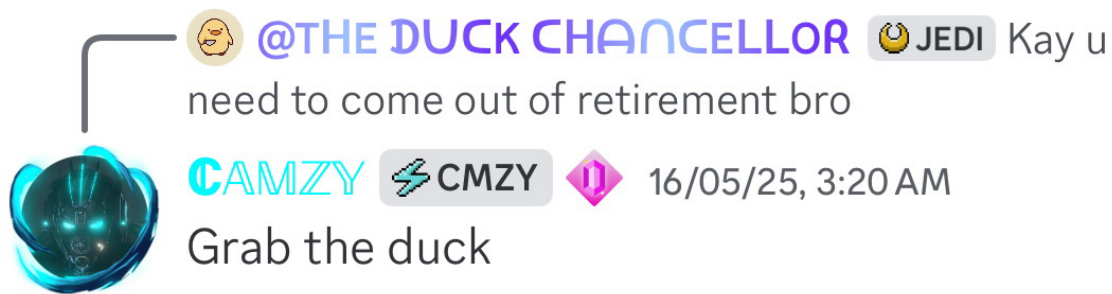

N word said by Camzy.

Surprisingly, Camzy came back using an alternate account, which is a separate issue that will be explained later. Achi allowed him to return, which raises questions about fair treatment.

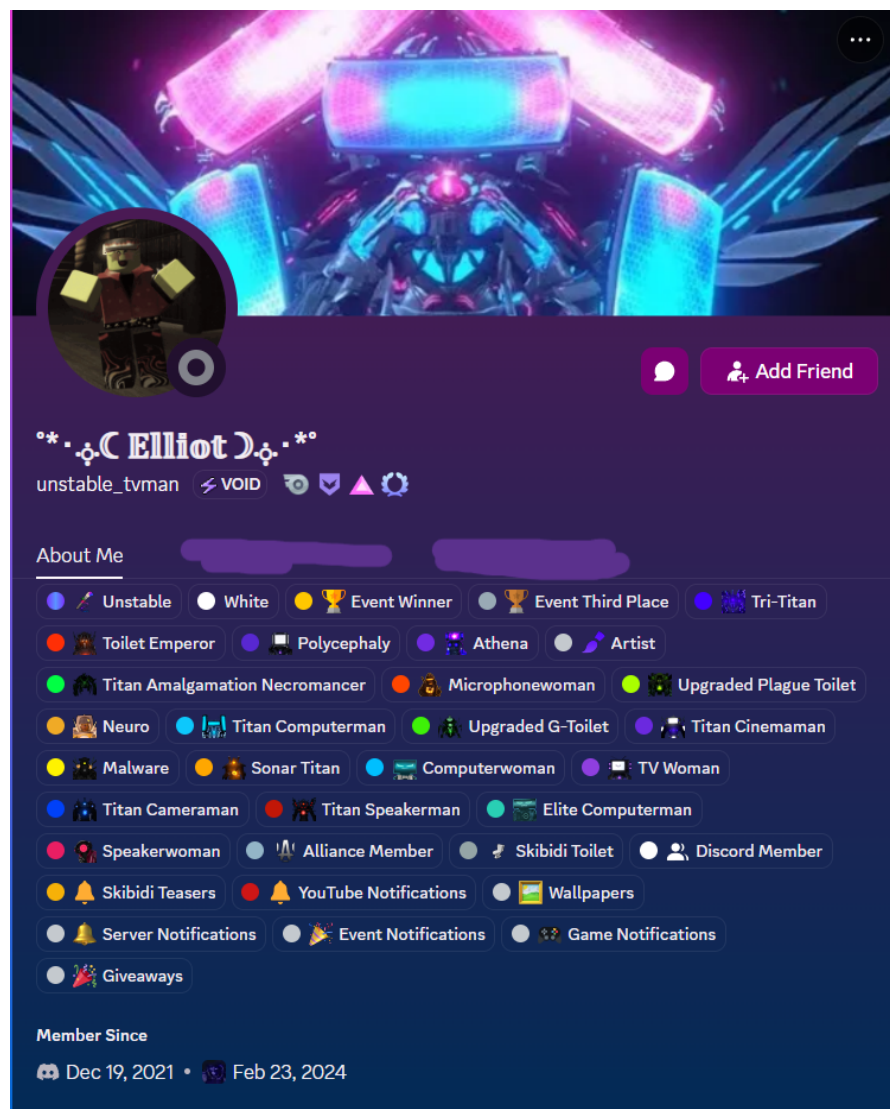

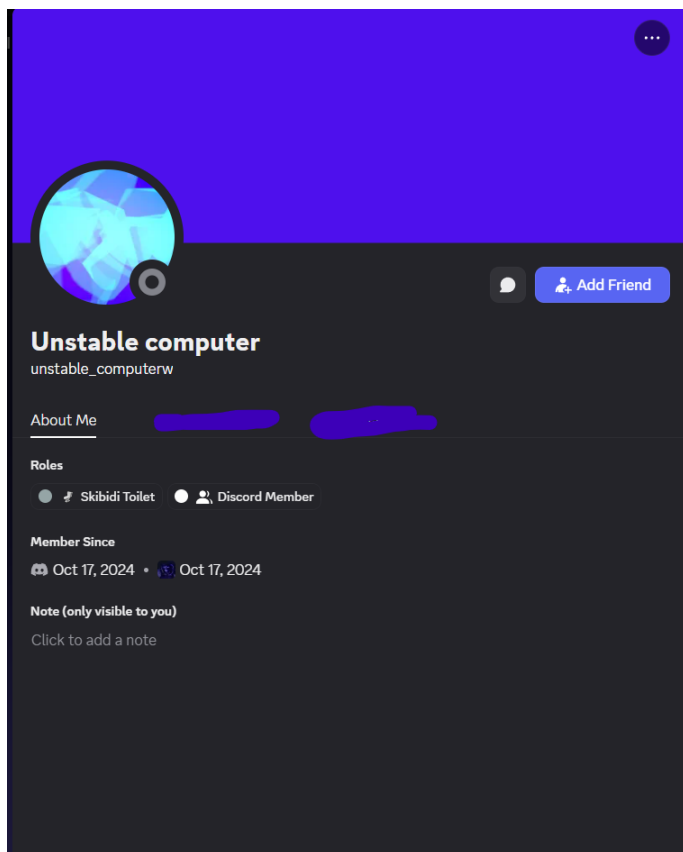

The screenshot on the left displays Camzy's original account, while the image on the right shows his alternate or new account. This visual evidence supports the claim of his return under a different identity.

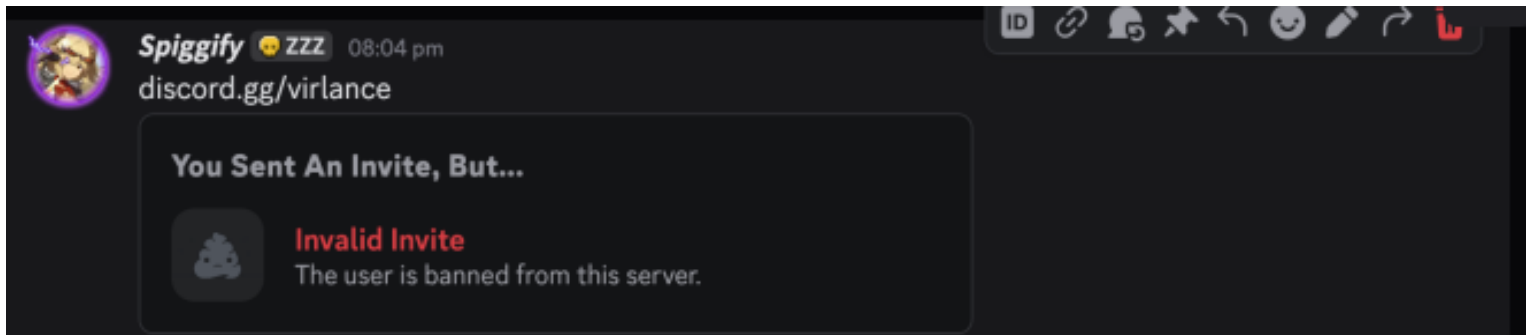

These two screenshots show Camzy communicating in the Virulance server once more. He initially used the name “Vortex” but later reverted to using the name “Camzy.”

In the Virulance server, staff policy is to ban alternate accounts that closely resemble the original account. However, exceptions appear to be made for close friends of the staff, such as Camzy and Unstable, whose alternate accounts were allowed to remain active despite this rule.

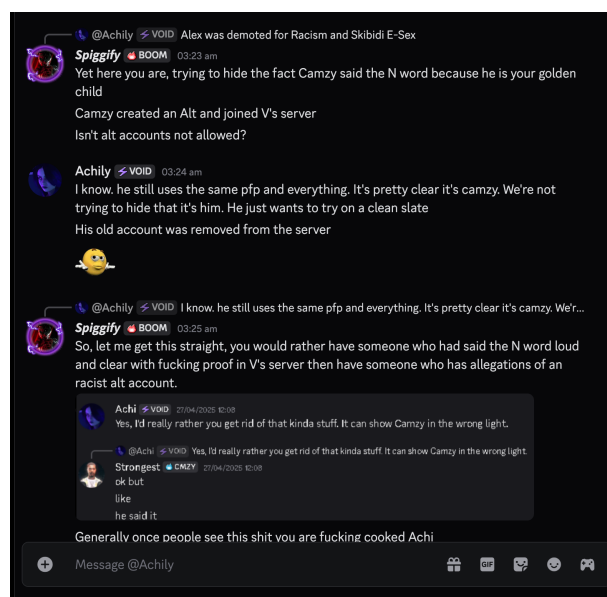

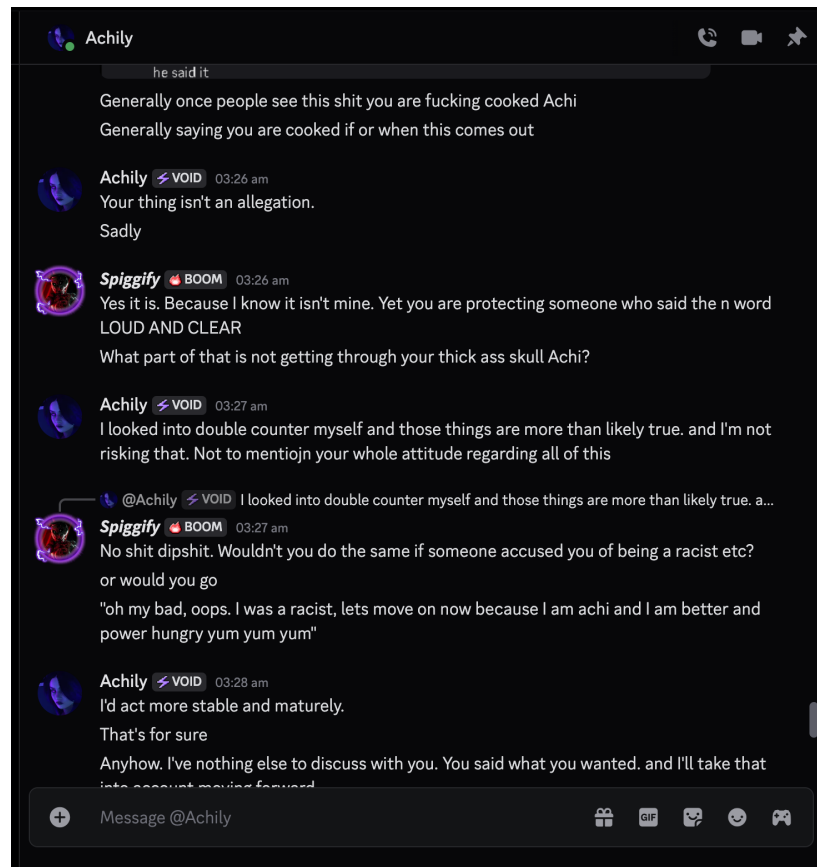

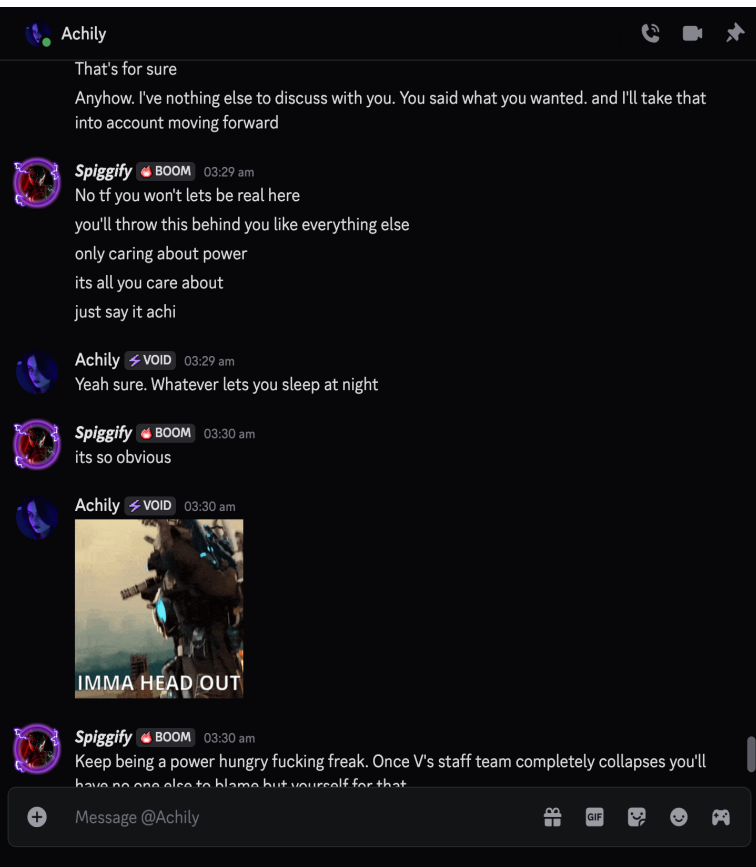

In these screenshots you can see unstable main account and his alt on the left is the alt and on the right one is his main account

The screenshot shows that Spig was banned from the Vir lance server. However, Spig does not have any alternate accounts, so the ban was made without proper cause. This decision should be reviewed and reversed.

THE ISSUE WITH SPIGGIFY.

Spig was banned for having an alternate account, despite evidence shown in earlier screenshots proving he did not have one. An argument between Achi and Spig occurred, as documented in the accompanying screenshots.

Strongest #987 2/14/2025 8:07 PM

Camzy said the N word straight up. and you are saying I am worse.

Achily VOID 03:14 am
Yeah because you, on your alt were racist and encouraged self harm.

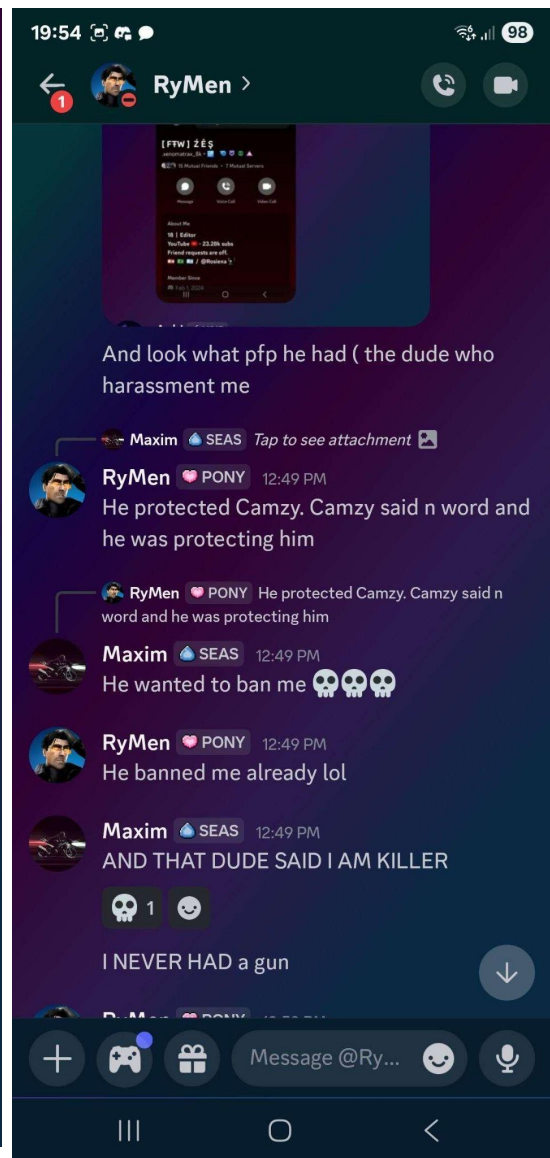

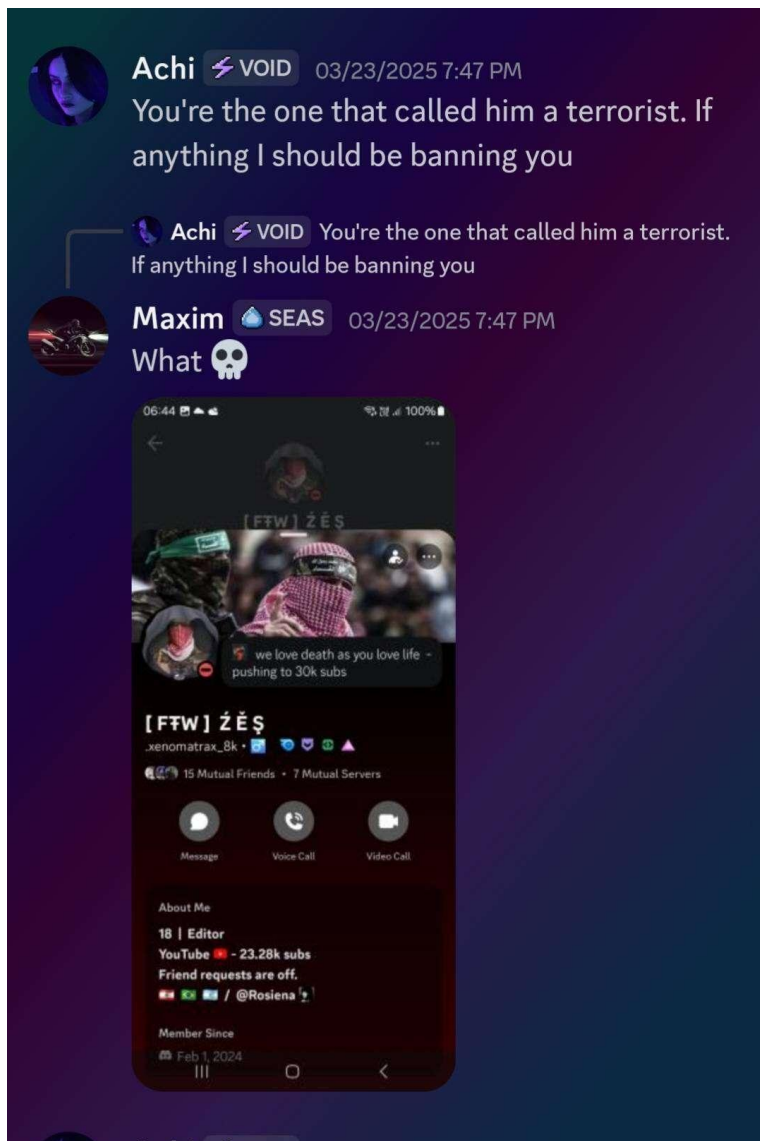

Spiggify BOOM 03:15 am
Yet you allow someone WHO SAID THE N WORD in V's server where I did NOT say the N word, I do not OWN alts, I did NOT ENCOURAGE SELF HARM
Generally I am going to be honest

In brief, Spig questioned why Camzy was not banned for using the N-word before Spig himself was banned. Instead of addressing this, Achi dismissed the concern and banned Spig for having an alternate account.

THE ISSUE WITH MAXIM

There is a Discord member named Maxim, who was a Spid admin. Following an unrelated incident, Maxim fell into a severe depression and a much worse mental state than Alex. He also faced threats and harassment through direct messages from multiple members.

Scroll down to see screenshots and more detail.

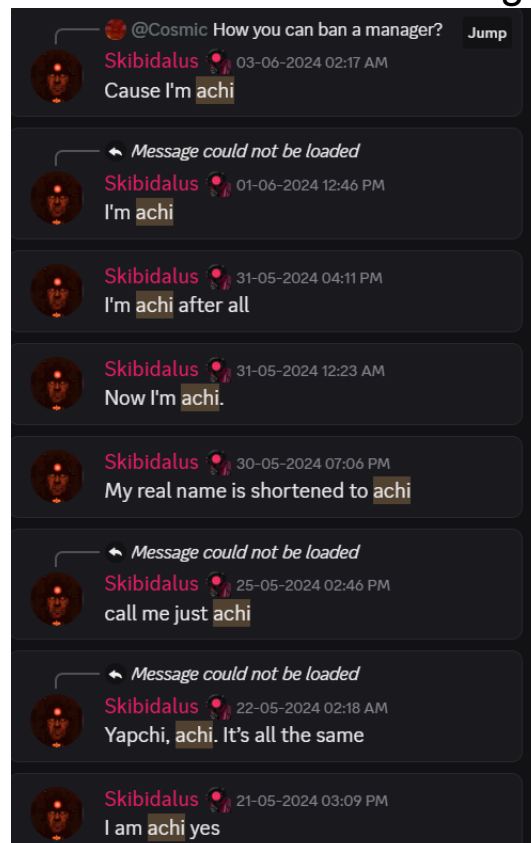

As shown in these screenshots, after the incident with Spid, Maxim reported a user named “Xenomatrix,” who had a profile picture depicting a terrorist.

In the Virgance server, a terrorist profile picture is strictly prohibited and should result in an immediate ban. However, despite clear evidence, Achi failed to ban the user “Xenomatrax” who displayed such an image. Instead, Achi wrongfully attempted to ban Maxim, the member who reported the violation. Additionally, Achi banned “Rymen,” a close friend of his, without providing any explanation. These actions demonstrate a clear misuse of authority and inconsistent enforcement of the server’s rules by Achi.

Screen_Recording_20250323_072313_Discord.mp4

In this screen recording, it is clearly shown that Xenomatrax is making threats against Maxim. Despite this, Achi failed to assist Maxim and instead made him feel worse about the situation.

Achi also operated an alternate account, which he used for a period before discontinuing its use. The following evidence confirms that this alternate account belongs to Achi.

Additional evidence further demonstrates Achi's abuse of power within the server.

Screen Recording 20250613 083531 Discord.mp4

In this screen recording, you can clearly see Achi threatening Maxim, even though Maxim was right about the terrorist situation.

Instead of addressing the serious issue Maxim brought up, Achi responded with threats, trying to silence him.

It also seems like Xenomatrix is a close friend of Achi, and both of them appear to have a good relationship with the Virulance staff team. Because of that, it looks like Achi's actions were ignored or protected.

This shows clear favoritism and unfair treatment, especially when someone like Maxim is punished or threatened for telling the truth.

Conclusion: Achi, the Server Manager of Virllance, engaged in several actions that raise serious concerns about his leadership and fairness. He unfairly banned Alex, a senior staff member, based on unproven accusations of pedophilia and racist behavior without allowing Alex to defend himself. This decision was influenced more by personal bias than facts and caused Alex severe mental distress.

During the issues in the “Skibidi Roleplay Server,” Achi witnessed manipulation and abuse of admin privileges but failed to manage the situation properly, contributing to further problems. He inconsistently enforced server rules, banning Camzy for using the N-word but later allowing Camzy to return with an alternate account, despite rules against such behavior. Similar favoritism was shown towards other close friends.

Achi wrongfully banned Spig for allegedly having an alternate account, even though evidence showed Spig did not. When Spig questioned why Camzy was not similarly punished, Achi dismissed the concern and banned Spig instead. Achi also failed to protect Maxim, who reported a user with a terrorist profile picture making threats. Instead of addressing these threats, Achi attempted to ban Maxim and made the situation worse.

Furthermore, Achi banned members without clear reasons while protecting close friends, demonstrating misuse of authority and favoritism. It was also revealed that Achi himself used an alternate account, which raises questions about his transparency and accountability.

Overall, Achi should be held accountable for unfair and biased decision-making, inconsistent rule enforcement, failure to protect members from harassment and threats, abuse of administrative power, and contributing to a toxic environment that negatively impacted members' mental health. A review of his leadership role is necessary to restore trust and fairness in the Virrance server.

Note: If any Virrance staff members attempt to cover up these issues, it would strongly suggest that Achi is indeed guilty of the misconduct. Efforts to hide or dismiss these concerns would indicate an unwillingness to hold him accountable and further undermine the integrity of the server's leadership.

To anyone reading this, it is important to understand that Achi is clearly unfit to hold any staff position within the Virrance server. His actions and decisions have repeatedly demonstrated a lack of fairness, responsibility, and respect for the community he was supposed to manage. From banning members without proper investigation to showing favoritism toward close friends, Achi has misused his authority in ways that have harmed the server's integrity and the well-being of its members.

He failed to protect members from harassment and threats, instead worsening the situation for those who came forward. His inconsistent enforcement of rules has created confusion and frustration, undermining trust in the staff team. Most seriously, his unjust treatment of members like Alex has caused severe mental health issues, which is a direct result of his irresponsible leadership.

If you still believe Achi is fit to be a staff member, you need to reconsider. Ignoring these facts means overlooking serious problems that have damaged the community. It's essential to open your eyes to the reality of his behavior and demand accountability. The health and fairness of the Virgance server depend on having staff members who act with integrity and respect — qualities Achi has clearly failed to show.
