

Services for survivors who are immigrants

QUESTIONS from the group

- ~~I had a survivor ask what would happen if I drove her to a meeting with AALV in Burlington (from Lamoille County) and we were pulled over by police. She had concerns about that leading to her being taken away by the police/ICE. What would your thoughts be on that? Are we free to move about and attend meetings at AALV or is AALV a target since they provide services to immigrants?~~
- ~~Is it still possible to assist someone in filing for immigration status under VAWA? or by doing that, would someone be deported?~~
- ~~Does every immigrant that's being removed from America gets a hearing date before they are fully deported?~~
- ~~There was an ICE checkpoint on junction of 91 and 89 a few weeks ago, why was that necessary?~~
- ~~If Obergefell were to get overturned would that impact folks who have previously obtained a green card through a same sex marriage? Would it close down any access to receive a green card if you are starting/in the midst of that process?~~
- Does ICE do mandatory training such in give proper accommodation since a lot immigrant primary language isn't English.
- Do the parents for SIJS need to be residing in the US?
- are we going to discuss what a correct warrant looks like from ICE? and what should undocumented immigrants do if ice approaches them or shows up to their home or shelters?
- ~~Does ICE and the local police work together?? as client are scared of all law enforcement because of ICE, thinking they are bound together.~~
- Would immigrants have an equal rights to their communications access needs?
- ~~I know VAAPVT has a place to put ICE/Border Patrol sightings but I was wondering if there is a place to access those reports so we can warn people we are working with~~
- Question to Jill: When undocumented immigrants are in proximity to law enforcement officers that's not here for them, do they run a risk of collateral arrest?
- Does having a Relief From Abuse order against someone make them more likely to be surveilled/detained by ICE?
