Principal's Report

Mrs. Craven reported they had successful PT conferences, great food from PTO for teachers and participation with parents. First quarter ended, teachers communicating with parents in regards to any successes or concerns. Continuing to work with the new curriculum, working through the bumps in the road and working with the regional office to fix. Anti-bullying month is this month, school social worker and Mrs. Craven met with each grade level and had great participation and discussion. PTO picture person's first month went well. Tiger tales reading program is continuing to be a big hit and enjoying their pizza party. 5th grade band concert was a success.
