

ALLOWED USAGE

You are ONLY allowed to use my arrangements as background music in your youtube videos, for example BGM, AMV, Speedpaint, background music for a review etc.

Only artists who are under a collaboration with me may use my covers as backing for their vocal/instrumental videos or creative projects (short films, animations etc.)

IMPORTANT

Permission does not mean monetisation.

If you use my music, there is a chance you will get a copyright claim (NOT A STRIKE) from my network Elite Alliance Music and your video will be demonetised.

I fully own the rights to my original work but not the composition rights to my covers/arrangements hence, they are NOT 100% copyright-claim free. They are also on Youtube's Content ID to protect my work.

1. Re-uploading my videos on YouTube and other platforms (bilibili etc.)
2. Making Vocal/instrumental covers using my audio file of my covers without my permission

6. Making Remixes using the audio of my covers (Trap, Hip Hop, Lofi etc..)
7. Illegal music distribution of my arrangements to Streaming Services

If you do any of the following, you run the risk of your content being removed and possible legal action being made by music publishers.
