Creating Multiple Sites

Creating multiple sites starts with signing into wix.com.
Click on “Create New Site” to start the process.

+ Create New Site

Choose the appropriate topic area, usually “Portfolio”.

A screenshot of the Wix website creation interface. At the top left is the "Wix" logo. The main heading is "What kind of website are you creating?". Below this is a search bar with the placeholder text "Search for your business or website type" and a "Next" button to its right. Underneath the search bar, the word "EXAMPLES" is written in small letters, followed by a list of website types: "Online Store", "Portfolio", "Blog", "Consultant", and "Technology Company".

Name your website.

A screenshot of the Wix website naming step. The heading is "What would you like to call your website?". Below the heading is the text "You can change it anytime.". At the bottom, there is a text input field with the placeholder "Enter your website name" and a blue "Next" button to its right.

I D E A FUSION

Old Dominion University is an equal opportunity, affirmative action institution.

Note: You can skip any of these beginning questions by clicking “Skip” in the bottom right corner.

Choose to either let Wix guide the process or pick from existing templates. It is strongly suggested to utilize Wix Editor (Begin with template), since all of the tools are available in those templates, and only limited availability is present in Wix ADI (Get a custom-built site).

You can choose from the pre-designed Wix templates or use a blank template by clicking on “Blank Templates” in the upper right.
