MOMENT FOR HERITAGE:

Martin Luther King Jr.'s final "I've Been to the Mountaintop" speech:

"Well, I don't know what will happen now. We've got some difficult days ahead. But it doesn't matter with me now. Because I've been to the mountaintop. And I don't mind. Like anybody, I would like to live a long life... But I'm not concerned about that now. I just want to do God's will. **And He's allowed me to go up to the mountain. And I've looked over. And I've seen the promised land. I may not get there with you. But I want you to know tonight, that we, as a people, will get to the promised land."

"Dr. Martin Luther King Jr., on the night before his death, said, 'I've been to the mountaintop... I've seen the promised land... I may not get there with you, but we, as a people, will get to the promised land."

SCRIPTURE READING:

Exodus 24:12–18 (New International Version)
The LORD said to Moses, "Come up to me on the mountain and stay here, and I will give you the tablets of stone with the law and commandments I have written for their instruction."
Then Moses set out with Joshua his aide, and Moses went up on the mountain of God. He said to the elders, "Wait here for us until we come back to you. Aaron and Hur are with you, and anyone involved in a dispute can go to them."

When Moses went up on the mountain, the cloud covered it, and the glory of the LORD settled on Mount Sinai. For six days the cloud covered the mountain, and on the seventh day the LORD called to Moses from within the cloud. To the Israelites the glory of the LORD looked like a consuming fire on top of the mountain. Then Moses entered the cloud as he went on up the mountain. And he stayed on the mountain forty days and forty nights.

Matthew 17:1-9 NRSV (The Transfiguration)

After six days Jesus took with him Peter, James and John the brother of James, and led them up a high mountain by themselves. There he was transfigured before them. His face shone like the sun, and his clothes became as white as the light. Just then there appeared before them Moses and Elijah, talking with Jesus.

Peter said to Jesus, "Lord, it is good for us to be here. If you wish, I will put up three shelters — one for you, one for Moses and one for Elijah."

While he was still speaking, a bright cloud covered them, and a voice from the cloud said, "This is my Son, whom I love; with him I am well pleased. Listen to him!"

When the disciples heard this, they fell facedown to the ground, terrified. But Jesus came and touched them. "Get up," he said. "Don't be afraid." When they looked up, they saw no one except Jesus. As they were coming down the mountain, Jesus instructed them, "Don't tell anyone what you have seen, until the Son of Man has been raised from the dead."

NEW EVENTS: "What makes you come alive?"

"Don't ask what the world needs. Ask what makes you come alive, and go do it. Because what the world needs is people who have come alive." — Howard Thurman

Becoming Human: A Season of Practice This Lenten season, we move beyond "believing harder" and into the transformative work of living more honestly. Inspired by the wisdom of Howard Thurman, our series explores attention, resilience, and the "quiet center" within us.

HIGHLIGHTS:

New Sermon Series: Becoming Human (Feb 8 through Easter April 5) Influenced by the wisdom of Howard Thurman, this series explores what it means to live a grounded life in anxious times. We'll look at attention, limits, and resilience through the lens of Gospel stories, psychology, and neuroscience. These aren't sermons about "believing harder"—they are about learning how to live more honestly and gently in the world we're in.

Lenten Practice Group: Jesus and the Disinherited (Wednesdays, orientation starting Feb 18, 7 pm zoom) In a time of deep division, Howard Thurman's classic remains a vital roadmap for spiritual and social survival. We will explore how Thurman's vision of dignity, resistance, and love helps us navigate the modern world with our humanity intact.

Black History Film Festival: Sat, Feb 21 12:30 - 2:30 pm. A unique afternoon in West Oakland featuring local films, The Spirit We Move With (Gullah Geechee culture) and A New Day Begun (The Black National Anthem).

Burned Out? A Sunset Reset in the Redwoods: Sunday, February 22 | 5:00–6:30 PM Skyline Sanctuary & Labyrinth

If you're tired, overwhelmed, or running on fumes, you're not broken—you're living in a world that never stops. This low-pressure evening is designed to help your nervous system breathe, grounded in the wisdom of Howard Thurman, who taught that "there is a quiet place in the heart where the spirit of God resides."

The evening includes:

- The Quiet Center: A guided reflection on Thurman's invitation to find the "centering moment" amidst life's storms.
- Sacred Movement: A labyrinth walk and gentle yoga/Tai Chi among the redwoods.
- The Sunset Close: Music and silence as the day ends, followed by an optional community potluck.

- No experience needed. Nothing to believe. Just a chance to step out of the noise and reconnect with your "inner light."

Skyline's Future in Focus- Worship

At our visioning retreat, we identified four areas of focus for Skyline's future:

1. Inspired by the Way of Jesus: Deepening our relationship with God.
2. God's Prophetic Inclusion: Creating welcoming spaces and justice-centered connections.
3. Invitation to Deeper Faith: Providing welcome and respite as a spiritual sanctuary.
4. Stewardship of God's Gifts: Committing to green ecology and environmental mission.

I need to know how to make these priorities real—and what to stop doing so we have room to do them well. This takes 2-3 minutes. Be honest. Your answers help me lead us toward the sanctuary we are trying to create.

1. SUNDAY WORSHIP: The Core Experience

Worship is the one place where all four areas of focus meet. Based on our retreat priorities, how should Sunday morning evolve?

Which 2 changes would make Sunday worship more meaningful for you?

- [ ] More Respite: Integrated silence and contemplative space (Retreat Priority: 21 votes
- [ ] More Stewardship: Nature-based elements or creation-centered theology (15 votes
- [ ] More Inclusion: Interactive/participatory elements and post-worship discussion (9 votes)
- [ ] More Inspiration: More music and sung worship (8 votes)
- [ ] Alternative Formats: Different times or outdoor settings.

3. THE STRATEGIC PRUNE IN WORSHIP:

What could Skyline stop doing (or do less of) to create breathing room for our four priorities?

What is the #1 barrier getting in the way of your participation? (Name optional)
