Officer Reports - meeting minutes, treasurers update, membership update President Sarah Harnish.
The previous meeting minutes and Treasurers Report for the month were accepted as presented with no changes or additions. Our current Treasury balance is $25,788.80. Our property taxes were paid this month. Club membership 47 Active, 5 Conservation. A total of $45 was made at the National Hunting and Fishing Day at Middle Creek.

NEW BUSINESS

Carey Specht has made up a deer roasting kit that has everything needed for our deer roasting events.
Jarrod Specht is to order and pick up 2 benches for the lower pond. The Husky mower is damaged. It was discussed to get rid and buying a new mower was discussed. The John Deere needs the carb cleaned out and Jarrod volunteered to do this.
Pheasant hunt has 19 signed up. 19 has signed up. Dick and Jarrod and Curtis and John will roast the deer. Carey will coordinate all food and drinks. Carey and Sarah will clean the clubhouse before the event. Dick asked about any adverse effect of the Avian Flu on this event and Sarah said we are good to go presently.
Voted to send Charlie Bensinger Dream Dinners due to the recent passing of his wife. Flowers were sent to the church as well. Jarrod and Carey handled this.
Copy of lease needs to be put in the safety deposit box. Jarrod and Sarah will handle this.
750.00 was voted on to pay Eugene Hoover for snow removal. Jarrod will get him a check this week.
Tenants furnace needs to be cleaned. Jarrod will let Mike and Maria know and what company we use.
John Shutter has set up a time for the insurance rep to talk to the club. Thanks John!
George Dodson let us know that there is a camp at Messiah College for future outdoorspeople. Contact George if anyone knows anyone interested. No update on beehives. Joe will look into this more in the Spring

CREP Sarah and Joe are still in charge of this and everything is on schedule and going well.

Joe made a motion to conclude meeting. Dick seconded this. Our next Meeting will be Thursday November 10th at 6:30 PM at the Club

Respectfully submitted,
Carey Specht, member Red Rose Chapter IWLA.
