EDITING DETAILS:

As a general rule, WIPS are not sent to a client for 'critique' purposes, they are simply to inform and alert you of progress on your commission.

Please keep in mind: You paid for my artistic perspective, and shouldn't attempt to micromanage.

Edits are still subject to artist discretion. Send backs and edits will cost the additional fee sent before completion. Examples of fees are the following:

- () Client forgot to send information in initial submission.
- () Client changed their mind about the content.
- () Client was not clear regarding details that suddenly became important.
- () Client wants something removed/added.
- () Client wants anything changed.

This will cost at least a $10 fee per edit so please be direct, but with the understanding: This is my work, please trust my artistic perspective.

REGARDING NSFW:

Generally, I am not very interested in making NSFW content and may politely refuse commissions if that's the focus. However, below I included some important information as it pertains to ordering adult (18+) material.

1.) Characters cannot ever be minors/appear underage. Size difference is not the same but will be a case-by-case basis. Please inquire if unsure.

2.) Vore of any capacity is never accepted.

3.) Excessive gore/violence requests will be rejected. No disembowelment, decapitation etc. Please inquire if unsure.

4.) All "furry fandom" characters must be sapient with cartoon features. I will not draw realistic styles for this and request the species be fictional.

5.) Certain kinks, fetishes or themes I absolutely will not accept under any circumstances are; Death/snuff, anything bestiality/zoophilia related, scat, diapers, anything involving minors/under age characters, excessive blood/gore, trans-fetishizing, homophobic/Anti-LGBTQ+ content, anything nazi, white supremacist or racist related.

Closing out: This is a broad, sweeping generalization for all my commissions/sales. More specific information will be supplied whenever requested, or personally deemed necessary on the posts or advertisements themselves. Such as with certain sales I'm running, adoptable designs, or otherwise. If you have questions about particular commission types, please contact me directly.

Thanks for your time + interest. Look forward to working with you.
