

The Bull Moose National Committee put out a national television ad during primetime hours, called "Why I moose."

Shot 1: I'm Check M. Brain, and I moose because modernizing our taxation policy and ensuring that America is an attractive place to invest and create jobs is our responsibility as national leaders. I am a Moose this election because it's time to change our corporate taxation setup that sends American jobs overseas and jeopardizes American workers.

Shot 2: I'm Bull Moose Party Chairman Allen Jamawoma, and I moose because guaranteeing our civil liberties, such as those protected by the Constitution, are not negotiable. I am standing this election because I want to protect the protections of the Bill of Rights, a woman's right to choose, and the dignity of the LGBTQ+ community.

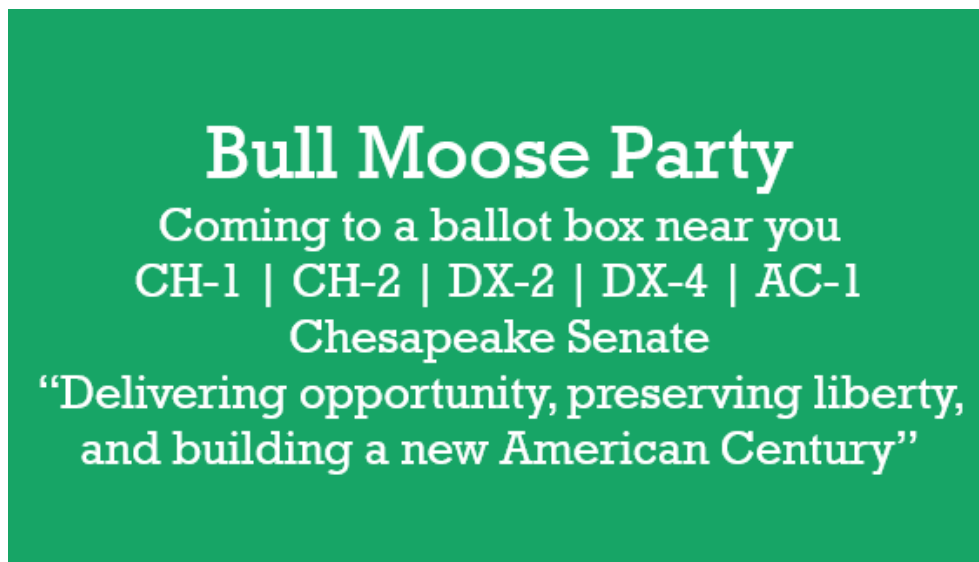

Shot 3: I'm Speaker of the House Shitmemery, and I moose because bringing back civil norms to our governance is absolutely crucial. Under Bull Moose leadership, we will be giving nominees a fair shot in hearings, and we will stop holding politics hostage at the expense of the American people.

Shot 4: I'm Senate Minority Leader Kingthero, and I moose because the environment is one of America's most valuable natural resources. We cannot continue to sit on our hands as natural disasters strike communities, including my own. I am a Moose because we must tax carbon and regulate emissions immediately, as well as continue to maintain and build our National Parks System.

Shot 5: I'm Kaiser Wilhelm, and I moose because America's position of global leadership has made America safer, limited the scourge of communism, and fostered a world where commerce and trade can thrive. I'm standing for election because we need to reclaim the mantle of "leader of the free world" to protect American prosperity and security.

Shot 6: At the ballot box, vote for the Moose. Vote to protect your civil rights, to improve the American natural beauty, and to ensure that this century is another century of American leadership.
