

Hey Becky, I've been helping coaches like you boost their revenue, recently helped a client grow from $8K to $30K using my A.S.C.E.N.D strategy.

I'm offering a no-risk, no-strings-attached trial to prove this can work for you too, with results delivered in under 30 days, guaranteed.

Would it clutter your calendar, or do you have 17 minutes for a quick call this week?

Market: Fitness coaches (as my biggest client is a fitness coach)

If you think that I should be doing another strategy, not just a Cold DM like this then please feel free to say that, I'm open for discussion and I want you to literally tear this outreach apart.

I also tried sending Loom videos a while ago, not sure if I should keep on trying with that method (tearing a prospect's website apart for example, and telling them what to upgrade).
