

Netiquette Nate: You are always trying to be as polite as you can. You have learned all the rules of proper etiquette in your day-to-day experience. But you sometimes hurt other people's feelings online accidentally. It's time to learn how to correspond properly online so there is no miscommunication—or worse!

Internet Resources:

<http://www.albion.com/netiquette/>

http://www.kenton.k12.ky.us/internet_safety/Gr4_Cyber%20Bullying.pdf

<http://www.albion.com/netiquette/corerules.html>

<http://www.indianchild.com/netiquette.htm>

<http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Netiquette>

<http://www.studygs.net/netiquette.htm>

<http://www.dtcc.edu/cs/rfc1855.html>

<http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Cyberethics>

<http://www.unc.edu/~jsugar/ethics.html>

http://www.symantec.com/norton/library/familyresource/article.jsp?aid=pr_cyberethics

Video Resources:

Email Etiquette video

BrainPOP: Watch video under Digital Citizenship called “Digital Etiquette”

Questions:

1. What is netiquette short for?
2. Define netiquette.
3. What are some basic rules of netiquette?
4. What is a flame or Flame-mail? What is a flame war? How can you avoid a flame war?
5. Why should you stay away from using all capital letters?
6. What is an emotioncon?
7. List 5 items you think should be included on your Top 10 List of Internet Safety Tips.
8. What is Cyber Ethics?

9. List some Cyber Ethical issues.

Role/ Assignment:

Create an Internet Etiquette Tips Guide to share with your classmates.