5th Graders:

You will be required to read 3 approved books for the second trimester. You may select your own books, but there are some guidelines that need to be followed when selecting your books.

1. Each book needs to follow the genre that I have selected, and every book will have a different genre.
2. The books must be approved by me before you begin reading
3. Each book should be a "good fit" book
4. Each book must be finished by the due date specified below.

Book Genres & Due Dates:

*Book #1: This should be a realistic fiction book, and is due on January 7th

*Book #2: This book should be an autobiography book and is due on February 4th

*Book #3: This book is a free choice. You may choose any book that you would like to read, as long as it is approved by me first. The 3rd book is due on March 5th

You are expected to bring the book you are reading with you to class everyday. If you are having trouble finding a book to read, please see me (ASAP), and I will give you some suggestions. Please let me know if you have any questions!
