On the Request of Judge hmquestionable

Whereas Moving §3, §3.1, §3.2, §3.3 to Article 21 from Article 20 of CPA is essential
Whereas it is useless to have it in Art 21 at the stage of trial.

Article 1

§1. Article 21 §3, §3.1, §3.2, §3.3 of the Courtroom Procedures Act shall be repealed.

§2. These sections shall be inserted in Article 20 of the Courtroom Procedures Act;;

“§4. Should either party fail to respond to the pre-trial, the case will automatically be found in favor of the party present.

§4.1. Should the plaintiff be the absent party, they will be fined with an amount decided upon by the Judge at the hearing.

§4.2. Should both parties fail to be present, the court will automatically dismiss the case, and no fines will be given.

§4.3. If the absent party had a reasonable excuse for their absence and could not reasonably give notice, this section shall not apply and the pre-trial shall be rescheduled.”

§2. The Amendment to the Courtroom procedures act shall be implemented as soon as possible after the passage.
